

The above reports that at Nichols Field a guard hit him several times with a pick handle, some of the blows so badly bruised his left kidney that he became paralyzed and was unable to walk for nearly three hours. Private Reass of the 200th Coast Artillery was also beaten at that time.

(7-45)1

SECRET