

Mercer Quarterly Court-

Nellie Henderson-

Plff-

Vs- Petition-

Bettie Henderson-

Dft-

The plaintiff, Nellie Henderson, states that the property described by her in this action is as follows: A large dresser with two long drawers and two short ones and a large glass, and is of the value of $25.00. A bed stead and springs; the bed being very high head board and a flat piece on the foot board and is of the value of $10.00-

Plaintiff says that she is the owner of this property and entitled to the immediate possession and that it is being wrongfully detained by the defendant- That it was not taken for a tax or a fine against the plaintiff, or under any order or judgment of a court against her; nor seized under an execution, distress warrant, or attachment against her property- That the cause of action herein has accrued with in one year last past-

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for the property described herein if it can be had and if not for the value thereof which is $35.00 and for an order for the immediate delivery of said property and all costs of this action-

Nellie Henderson.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Nellie Henderson, Sep't- 12, 1923-

R. L. Blaas
Examiner Mercer County, Ky-