M.
D. v Moore

Defendant.

Plaintiff says the defendant is indebted to him for goods wares and merchandise sold and furnished him at his special instance and request to the amount of $97.62 that said sum is just due and owing is past due and defendant has promised to pay the same but fails and refuses to do so; that this is an action for money due on contract; that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution and not sufficient thereof to satisfy this claim interest and costs and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found; that he believes he should recover the full sum of $97.62 and interest and costs.

Wherefore he prays judgment for $97.62 and interest and costs and an order of attachment with Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg, Ky as garnishee
