

The affiant, C. E. Rankin, says that he is attorney for Mrs Hattie Chambers; that ~~themselves~~ W. D. Lunsford is indebted to said Hattie Chambers in the sum of $54.00 for money, and property furnished and obligated to be furnished to him so that he could and to assist him in raising and maturing a crop of corn and tobacco on her farm in Mercer County and for rents of said land and for subsistence while raising the same; that said sum; that said crop was raised on the land of Hattie Chambers on the shares and that she now has a lien on the crop and on all thereof to pay to her the said amount due to her.

Chaukie

Subscribed and sworn to before me by C.E. Rankin, Jany 21, 1918.

J.W. Dauphin, Jr. Mee