They state that the infant defendant Elizabeth Thompson lives with and is in the custody of her mother the defendant Mary R. Thompson who is also her guardian.

They state that it will be necessary to have a complete survey made of said farm in order to ascertain its exact boundary and acreage; that no allotment of dower or division of said land has ever been had.

Wherefore they pray that the Court through its processes and through Commissioners allot dower to the widow and divide the remainder of the land among the respective heirs; they pray generally for all orders judgments and reliefs to which they may seem entitled with their costs and counsel fees.
