CRAMPS WITH OLD PEOPLE
For relief, take from 6 to 9 strands of red yarn and twist it together and make a nice, large cord of it, and tie it around your leg just below the knee and you will never have the cramps. It's great pain when you have to get up at night and walk the floor. Try it. (Sometimes younger people have it).
Yours,
DR. R. LITSEY.

"TOBACCO"
Only a few know the trouble Aunt "Sally Bottoms," who lived in the knobs above Danville, had. She and her grandson, about fourteen years old concluded to put her garden in tobacco and her neighbors plowed it at the proper time and helped her and the boy set the plants. She and the boy worked it as well as they could. Her neighbors cut it for her and hung it in the old shed. As time went on they brought out the old table and stripped it as they were told and then bulked it. It was not long until the tobacco houses were opened. They put the tobacco on the old spring wagon and drove over to Lexington and drove up to the floor and met the floor man. She told him to take it off and sell it and meet me here, at about 3 o'clock. It is now about noon. So she and her grandson went out to feed the old mare and get a snack for themselves. At the proper time she came back and met the floorman and asked him about the tobacco and he told her they could not sell the tobacco and we only charge you $1.00 for handling it. Can you pay us $1.00 now? She said no, but if I go to heaven I will send it to you and if I go to hell I will hand it to you.
Yours,
DR. R. LITSEY.

AUTO BURNED

The automobile owned by Clarence Yates was burned Monday night on the Mackville road at the city limits. It was the car that Andrew Phillips had stolen from the People's Motor Company some weeks ago that was recovered in Laurel county after it had been overturned and abandoned. Yates later bought the car. His loss by fire was practically covered by insurance.

A visa on a passport shows that it has been examined by the proper authorities and is in order.

Public Sale

SMALL FARM

Located on Danville Highway

Tuesday, March 3rd, 1936

10 A. M.

Owing to being permanently located in business in Lexington, Ky., will positively sell my farm on the above date, time and place.

The farm contains 55 acres all in Bluegrass, Lespedeza and Clover.

Over half of the land is deep bottom soil and the remainder has not been cleared for many years and was originally ash, sugar, wild cherry and walnut timber which is ample proof of limestone soil. The location is fifty per cent of the worth of any real estate to the home seeker. This farm is located on the Danville Highway No. 35, 2 miles from Harrodsburg; a few steps from a fine school with bus lines every few hours leading to all parts of the country; also plenty of water for household purposes and livestock.

The residence contains five rooms with front and rear porches. Good size barn and all necessary outbuildings. This sale is final. Terms very liberal on a long time loan. Possession immediately. Don't miss this sale if you want a nice small farm at a price you can afford to pay.

CLAYTON GULLY, Owner

Lexington, Kentucky.

Tuesday morning, March 3rd, 10 a. m. is the date on the premises.
