Be it remembered, that on this 12th day of June,

A. D., 1918, personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority,

Chas Jennings known to me who being duly sworn, upon his oath stated that he is Book Keeper of The Jellies Clothing Mfg. Co.

a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the State of Tennessee, a partnership composed of a sole trader doing business as and that as such he makes this affidavit; that he is familiar with the books and business of said Jellies Clothing Mfg. Co.; that the attached account against J H Carter of Harrodsburg Ky.

is just and correct, within the knowledge of this affiant, that the items thereon stated and composing the said account were sold and delivered to said J H Carter at <sup>its</sup> ~~their~~ <sub>his</sub> special instance and request; that credit has been duly given for all payments and just and lawful offsets to which said account is entitled as thereon stated, and that the balance thereof, amounting to the sum of Sixty Six & 50/100 Dollars ($ 66.50) with interest from June 12 1918 is justly due and remains unpaid.

Chas Jennings

Sworn to and subscribed before me on the day and year first above stated.
