HIGHLANDER

The industrial laboratory.

In this thirty-fifth edition of the Highlander, gradual changes have been made, just as they have through every year. The junior high has been given their own section of the book, and each class has a group picture.

Since its erection in 1955, many additions have been made to the school building. The foyer area and junior high were finished in 1968. Our industrial laboratory and new classrooms were added nine years later in 1977. And more additions and renovations were made to the cafeteria in 1982.

As our yearbook and school campus changed, so did our Scottie dog. Our mascot has taken on many forms: the cute, full-bodied pup, seen on our school coat of arms, the snarling face in our gym, and the plain looking mutt on the newly revived Pep Club's tee-shirts. Displayed in the library is the first Scottie dog, owned by Mrs. Nancy Ransdell. It was stolen by Harrodsburg in 1956, then returned a year later. The origin of our faithful friend, as well as our school newspaper, school colors, and yearbook title, can be traced back to General Hugh Mercer.

HISTORY

The first Scottie dog and Mercer County High School's coat of arms.

MCHS in the early years.

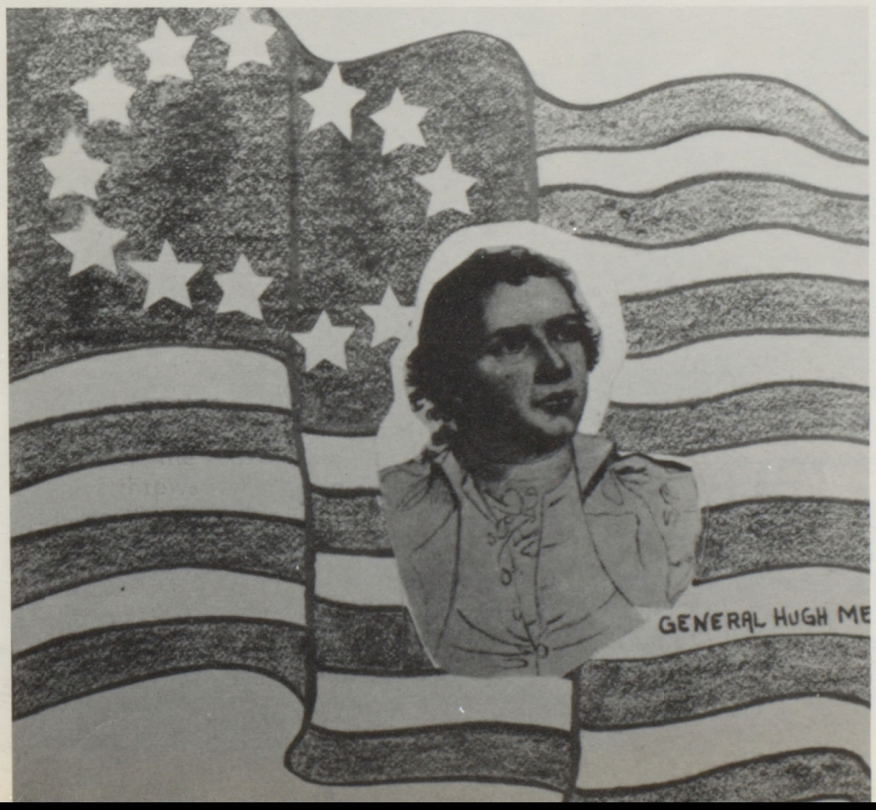

Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, sometime around 1725, General Mercer graduated with a degree in medicine at an early age. Obsessed with life in the military, he worked as a physician in the Highland Regiment. It is said that after coming to America in 1747, to flee British rule, he established the oldest "Apothecary Shop" in this country today.

It is said in Colonel George M. Chinn's book, Harrodsburg and the Greater Settlement Area, that throughout history General Mercer has always been known as "the bravest of the brave." He performed admirable heroics to earn claim to this title. On January 3, 1777, Mercer met his death at the Battle of Princeton, during the Revolutionary War. His horse shot from underneath him, Mercer fought on foot. Surrounded by English troops, he received multiple stab wounds from bayonets. Nine days later in a house only a few yards from the battlefield General Mercer died.

Patriots everywhere mourned his death and twenty thousand attended his funeral. His remains now rest in Christ Church, Philadelphia. A plain marble slab towers over head reading, "In memory of General Hugh Mercer who fell at Princeton, January 3rd, 1777." The St. Andrew Society of Philadelphia erected a monument to him and at Fredericksburg, a bronze statue of him on horse back still stands.

The formation of Mercer County, Kentucky took place in 1783, and the establishment of our school followed 172 years later. It was out of pride of General Mercer and his nationality that the Scottie was chosen as our school mascot. Our school colors are taken from the red and blue plaid of the Mercer Clan tartan. For our once lived school newspaper the traditional Scotch bagpipes furnished a name. And bearing the name of Mercer's homeland is our yearbook, the Highlander.

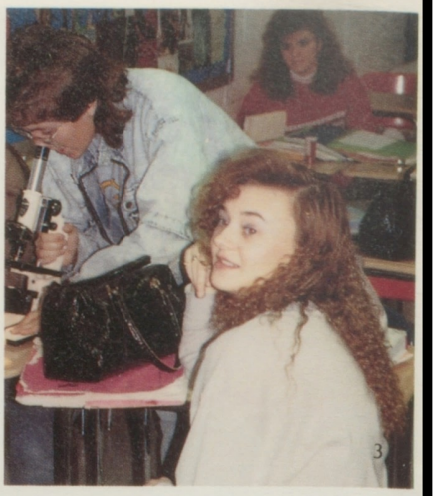

Revolutionary War hero General Hugh Mercer.

TEARING DOWN THE WALL

HOMECOMING

Homecoming 1989 at Mercer County High School will always be a memorable one for Kristi Steele. Escorted by her brother-in-law Daryl Kelly. Kristi was crowned by last year's queen, Michelle Hudson. Shannon Bradshaw, Nicole Morgan, Allison Sherrow, and Marci Gibson made up the homecoming court. Princess was Laura Stoltzfus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stoltzfus, and the prince was Adam Tamme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tamme.

Homecoming attendants were Chris Gammon and Elaine Dean, 7th grade; Travis Yeager and Nikki Elliott, 8th grade; Mason Moore and Leonna Inman, 9th grade; Michael Gammon and Holly Carpenter, 10th grade; and Chad Barnett and Angie Burns, 11th grade.

The honor of Mr. and Miss Mercer was proudly bestowed upon Marci Gibson and Travis Long by their peers from the Senior Class.

Marci plans to enter college and prepare for a career as a paralegal. She's been very active in several clubs — Beta, Pep, Spanish, Student council, FHA, and the concert band. This is her second year as captain of the color guard. Marci has been taking classes which she hopes will prepare her for college and the future.

Travis plans to become an assistant lab technician. He took an active part in football and is an active member of the tennis team. He belongs to the Ebenezer Church of Christ Youth Group. Academics and sports are important to him because they give him a chance to interact with others.

Both Marci and Travis have leadership qualities that make the Senior Class proud to have them as representatives.

IN MEMORY

KELLY GOODLETT

Baccalaureate services were held at the Harrodsburg Baptist Church. Proud family and friends watched as the Seniors marched in to "Largo." The Mercer County Concert Choir, led by Nancy Reece, sang "Festival Sanctus," "O Magnify the Lord," and "Amazing Grace." Pastor of the Hopewell Baptist Church, Rev. Barry Harmon gave the invocation.

Before they enter the church, John Click hugs himself and Kevin Tyler smiles. This group had fun waiting to get in line.

BACCALAUREATE

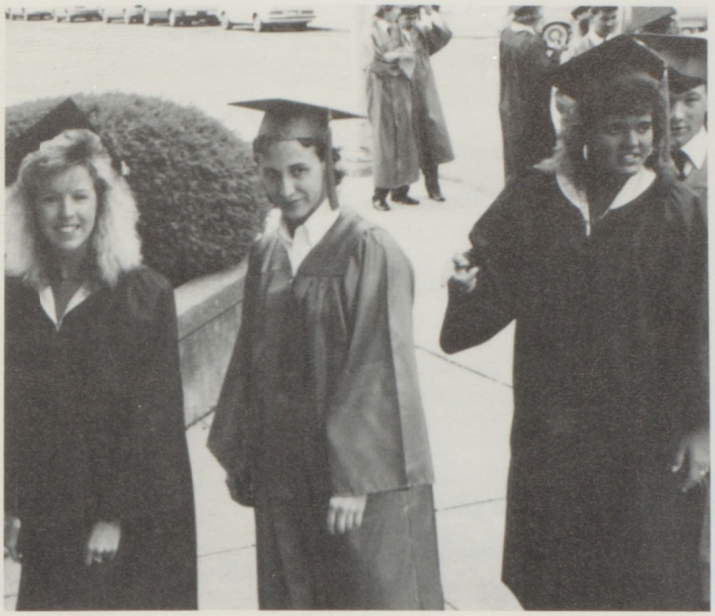

Shane Coyle and Shannon Barnard stand among friends when the service is over.

Travis Long smiles as Jamie Dunn looks serious while they wait to march in the church.

Rev. Scott Garren, Minister of Youth and Education at Harrodsburg Baptist Church, addressed the congregation. The service concluded with Rev. Harmon giving the benediction.

Angela Goodlett, Patrick Goodlett, and Julie Green wait to enter the church; Lisa Johnson and Aimee Inman look serious as their line reaches the door.

These anxious Senior guys can barely wait to get the service underway.

Wonder what mischief this group is thinking of?

Senior Chorus members sing, and Mr. Gash addresses the graduates.

GRADUATION 1990

It's difficult to stay occupied in the graduation line.

"Boy I sure am hungry," says Denna Tyler as she eyes Travis Long's cracker.

Are these students really pepped up for the game, or are they just excited to be out of class?

Victory

The beginning of a new decade brought many different changes to Mercer County High School, one being a basketball homecoming game. Each club chose one girl and boy to represent them in the homecoming court. Last year's sweetheart queen, Shawna Harlow, crowned the first Basketball Homecoming Queen, Carmen Linkous. Carmen was escorted by Patrick McMullin, and they both represented the student council.

The basketball game was one of great excitement for Mercer and Lincoln County. The game was close and tied many times before the buzzer sounded leaving Mercer the victor with a score of 67 to 66.

HERE COME

Miss Shannon Leigh Barnard, daughter of Cliff Proctor and Bobby Patterson, and Jeffrey Edward Sparks, Jr., son of Alex Kirkland and Brandy Steele, exchanged vows in a mock wedding ceremony at 8:30 a.m. December 8, in the Mercer County High School Bandroom. Chad Beasley served as the minister in the double-ring ceremony.

Brad Otis was the pianist. Robin Darland sang "I'll Be Right There Waiting for You" and "Longer Than." Kathy Collins and Sarah Wilson performed a flute duet, "My Tribute."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with a chapel-length train. The bodice and long sleeves were decorated with sequins and beads. Scalloped lace accented the hemline.

Miss Marci Gibson was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Tina Murphy and Miss Stacy Barnes.

Mr. Eddie Devine was the best man. Mr. Chris Darland and Mr. Tony Williams were ushers. Master Zackary Crump was the ring bearer.

Angie Stratton registered guests.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with a white linen cloth. The wedding cake was two-tiered with conelli lace and hand molded mints. Reception hostesses were Sabrina Hollingsworth, Mary Kegley, and Deanna Cope.

Cliff Proctor, the proud father, escorts his daughter down the aisle.

Bridesmaids Marci Gibson, Tina Murphy, and Stacey Barnes watch attentively as the I do's are said.

THE BRIDES

Miss Allison Renee Sherrow, daughter of Shelly Vandivier and Kevin Russell, and Mr. Ralph Christopher Darland, son of Tasha Chilton and Travis Long, were married in a mock wedding ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 3 at the Fellowship Baptist Church. Mary Darland performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. Brad Otis was the pianist, and Mr. Chris Young was the organist. Miss Robin Darland, soloist, sang "Longer" and "Right Here Waiting."

Given in marriage by her father and mother and escorted by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta and tulle-lace gown with a floor length skirt. She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounded by pink lilies and greenery and accented with a ribbon.

Miss Robin Whitaker was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Laura Devine, Miss Heather Dunne, and Leticia Freeman. Miss Morgan Coatney was the flower girl.

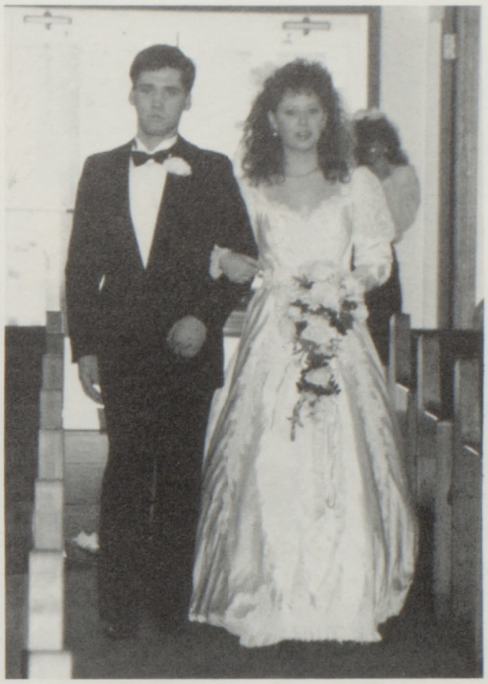

Mr. Kevin Carpenter was the best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Tony Brown, Mr. Sammy Morrell, and Mr. Kelly Coleman.

Miss Davette Baker registered the guests.

A reception was held at Mercer County High School the following day. The bride's cake was a traditional wedding cake, featuring two layers with crystal appointments. Reception hostesses were Kristi Steele, Amy Rowland, Rita Pike, Kim Hicks, and Angela Goodlett.

Honored! That's how Jerrod Elam and Andrea Burke felt after being selected as Mr. and Miss Junior.

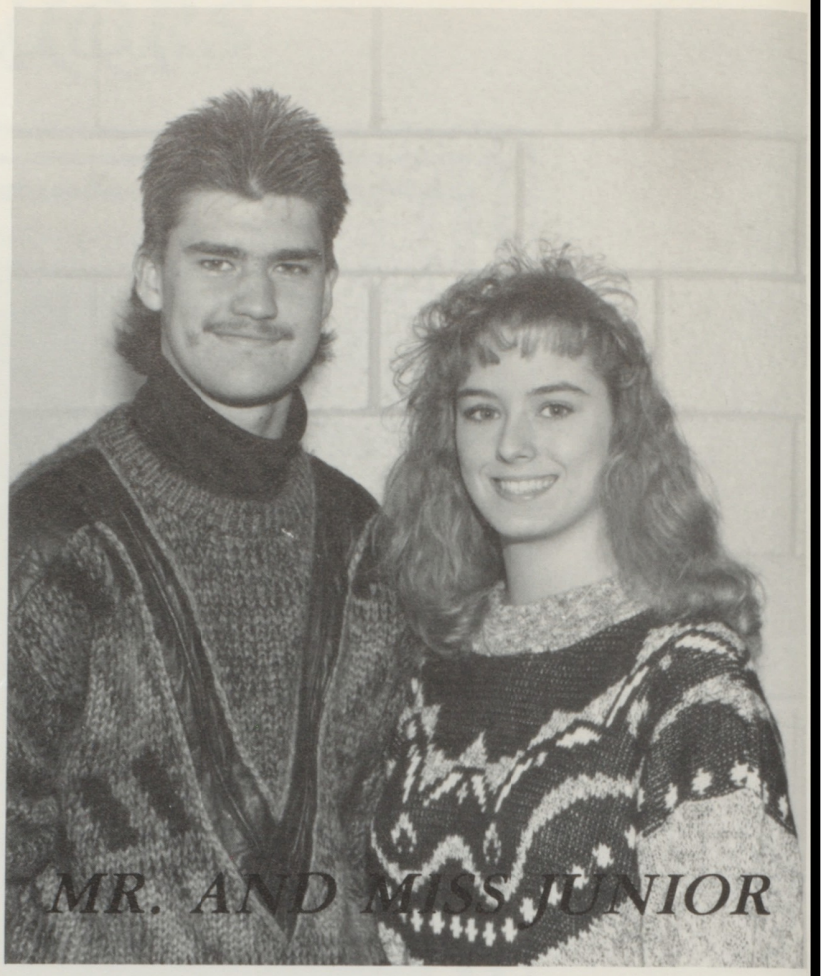

The junior class made a wise decision as was evident by the goals that Jerrod and Andrea reached and would attempt to reach in the future. Jerrod was a member of the football team and the FFA. Andrea was involved in Beta Club, Pep Club, Student Council, DAWGS, and was on the cheerleading squad.

After high school, Jerrod plans to attend the University of Kentucky. Andrea plans to attend college and major in psychology.

Jerrod and Andrea have personalities that make them well-liked by their classmates. Thus, they are appropriate representatives of their junior class.

Holly Carpenter was very honored by being selected to represent the Sophomore class. She plans, after high school, to attend Eastern Kentucky University and major in child psychology. Holly enjoys walking and watching cheerleading, but she loves to spend her time with friends. The goals she sets for herself are "never settle for less" and "to always try my best."

Michael Gammon plans to go to Western Kentucky University and major in business. Being selected to represent his class made Michael very happy. His main interests are basketball and spending his spare time with friends. Michael sets high standards for himself to do his best in academics and athletics.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated: Glynda Short, Robert Christiansen; Standing: Kenneth King, Kenneth Meredith, Clyde Sims, Jr., and J. Hugh Phillips.

The Mercer County Board of Education is comprised of five members who are elected by the voters of the community as their representatives in the school system. Mercer County is divided into five districts from which these members are elected. Each member serves a four year term after which he or she may run for re-election. Board meetings are held monthly so members may be updated on school activities and conduct school business.

Also serving with the board is the secretary to the board. The secretary to the board prepares the agenda and materials necessary for each board meeting. He then keeps the minutes of board meeting activities and board action as the official record of the meeting.

Robert Christiansen lives on Brown Lane in the Kirkwood area with his wife and two daughters. He attended the University of Missouri and is employed at IBM in Lexington.

J. Hugh Phillips lives on the Mackville Road, is married and has one son. Mr. Phillips is now and has long been an employee of Corning Glass, Inc. of Harrodsburg.

Kenneth D. King is the secretary to the board. He and his wife live in Riverview. He has three children and is the superintendent of the Mercer County Schools.

Glynda Short lives near Salvisa. She is married and has two boys. Mrs. Short is employed with the Kentucky Utilities Company and currently serves as vice-chairman of the board.

Kenneth Meredith lives in Oakwood Estates, off the Lexington Road. Mr. Meredith is married and has three sons. He is a hair stylist at Meredith and Murphy Hair Designers in Harrodsburg.

Clyde Sims, Jr. is married and has four children. He lives in the Cornishville area and is currently serving as chairman of the board. He is employed at Corning Glass, Inc. of Harrodsburg.

For many Mercer County High School students, the Harrodsburg Vocational School has been a place to advance their education for a chosen vocation. The vocational program offers instruction in Automative Technology, Business Technology, Carpentry, Electricity, Health Services, and Welding. One purpose of vocational education is to meet the man power training needs of industry. Students now have the opportunity to receive education and training which very few have obtained in the past. These opportunities include computers, hands-on-live work, house construction, clinic sites at the hospital, on-the-job training and the knowledge and abilities necessary to enter today's labor market as a technically trained, skilled employee. The needs of business and industsry and the needs of students are both fulfilled. It is expected that over 80% of this year's Vocational School graduates will enter jobs related to their training or continue their education in college.

FHA is a national organization of pupils who study homemaking in junior and senior high schools. It is an incorporated, non-profit youth organization.

The FHA motto is "Toward New Horizons." This motto is a challenge. It reminds members that their contributions to home and community life today will influence the kinds of homes they have in the future.

Jared Baker and Tammy Chilton were announced King and Queen at the Morp dance sponsored by the FHA.

The Christmas concert.

Mr. Bryant directs the band during practice.

The spring of 1990 proved to be an exciting time for the Mercer County Scottie Band and Flag Corps. They were invited to be guests performers at the Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, Florida. Bands from all across the United States submitted audition tapes and applications to perform at the prestigious Magic Music Days Festival. Groups were selected by a committee made up of the entertainment staff at Disney World as well as band consultants from numerous universities.

In addition to performing at the nationally acclaimed festival, Mercer also provided entertainment for guests at Sea World Amusement Park, also in Orlando. Both the performances at Disney and Sea World were video taped and shown over local television stations.

While in Florida, the band also enjoyed side trips to Daytona Beach and a tour of the Kennedy Space Center for a first hand look at the space shuttle Discovery before its launch in early May.

The class of '94 chose John David Taylor as their representative. He said that he feels priviledged to be chosen to represent his class.

In his spare time, he likes to play football and basketball. The one thing he would change about the school would be for the junior high students to have full length lockers. He continues to show his school spirit and leadership.

Mr. And Miss Eighth Grade

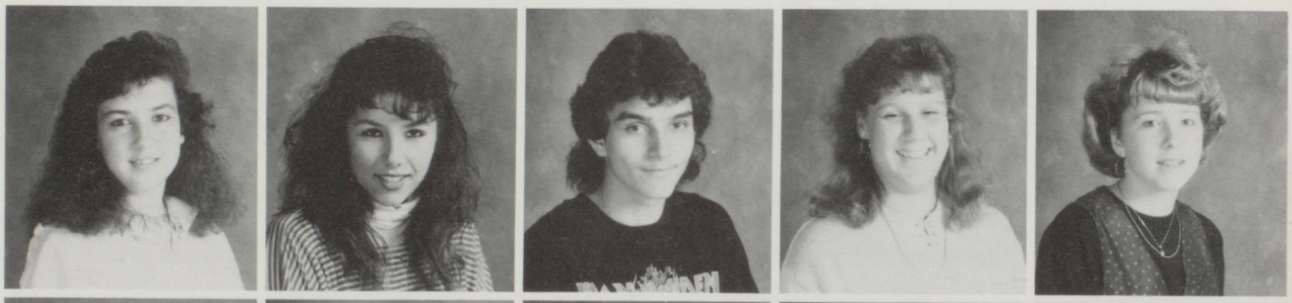

Nikki Elliott was chosen to represent her class as Miss Eighth Grade.

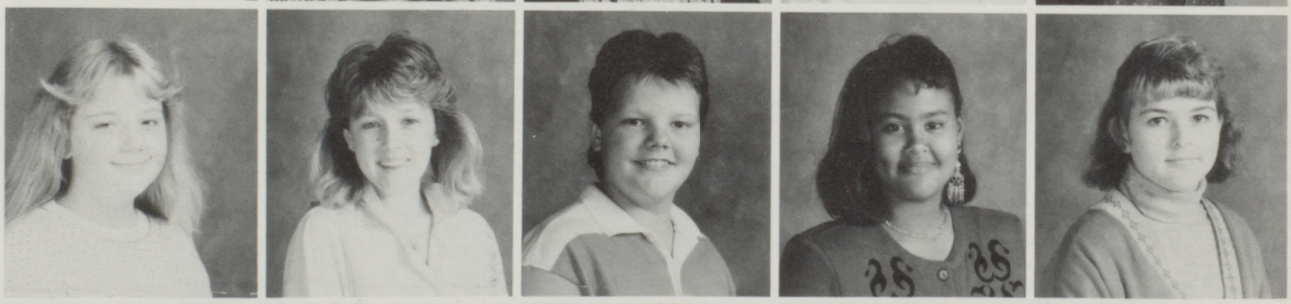

In her spare time, she works on studying and making good grades. She collects letters from her friends, reads, and listens to the radio. Her favorite class is English. If she could make any wish, Nikki would like for all students to remain drug free.

Nikki's great personality and friendliness have earned her the title of Miss Eighth Grade.

Mr. And Miss Seventh Grade

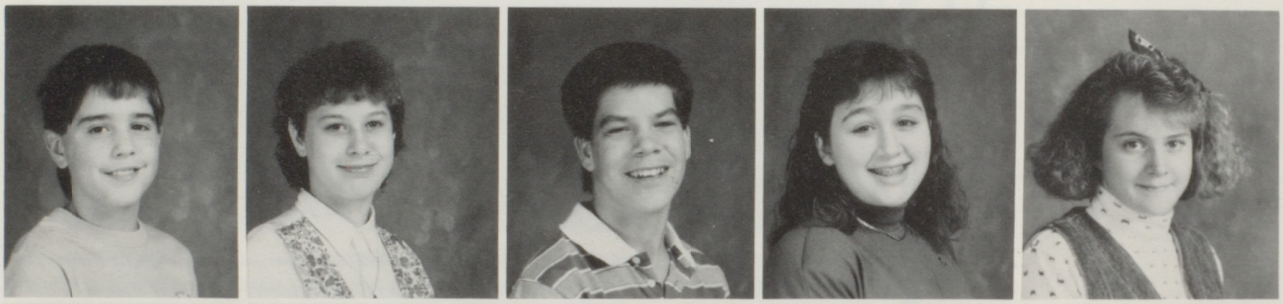

Elaine Dean and Clark Bugg were elected by their classmates to be Mr. and Miss Seventh Grade.

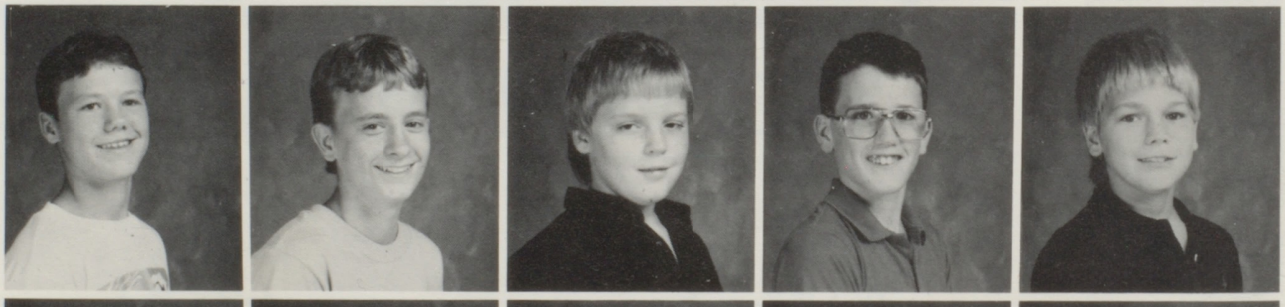

Elaine's special interest is playing basketball. In her spare time she likes to swim and play softball. She likes algebra because she enjoys the class and the teacher. The one thing she would like to see changed in the jr. high would be bigger hallways because they are too crowded.

Clark's special interest includes all areas of sports. His favorite class is math. The one thing he would like to see changed in the jr. high would be an extended break.

1. Nancy Applegate and friends gossip between classes.
2. Lunchtime!
3. Scott Gibson and friends wait for class to begin.

1. Sherrie Lay, Abby Overstreet, and Misty Beck are showing off their history project on their favorite pastime, the telephone. 2. The recording of time is proudly displayed by Mike Gullion and Nathan Noe for their history project. 3. Keeping a locker under control is no easy task for Patrick Hilbert. 4. Damon Beasley waves a biscuit as Bill Booth and Steven Ransdell try to finish their lunch. 5. As shocking as it may seem, there's someone actually trying to study at lunch. 6. The seventh graders just look so board at lunch.

GRADUATION MEMORIES

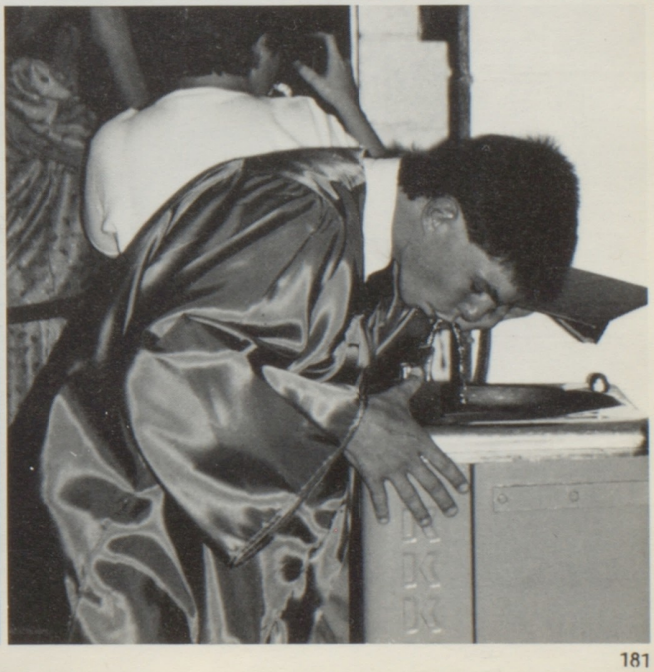

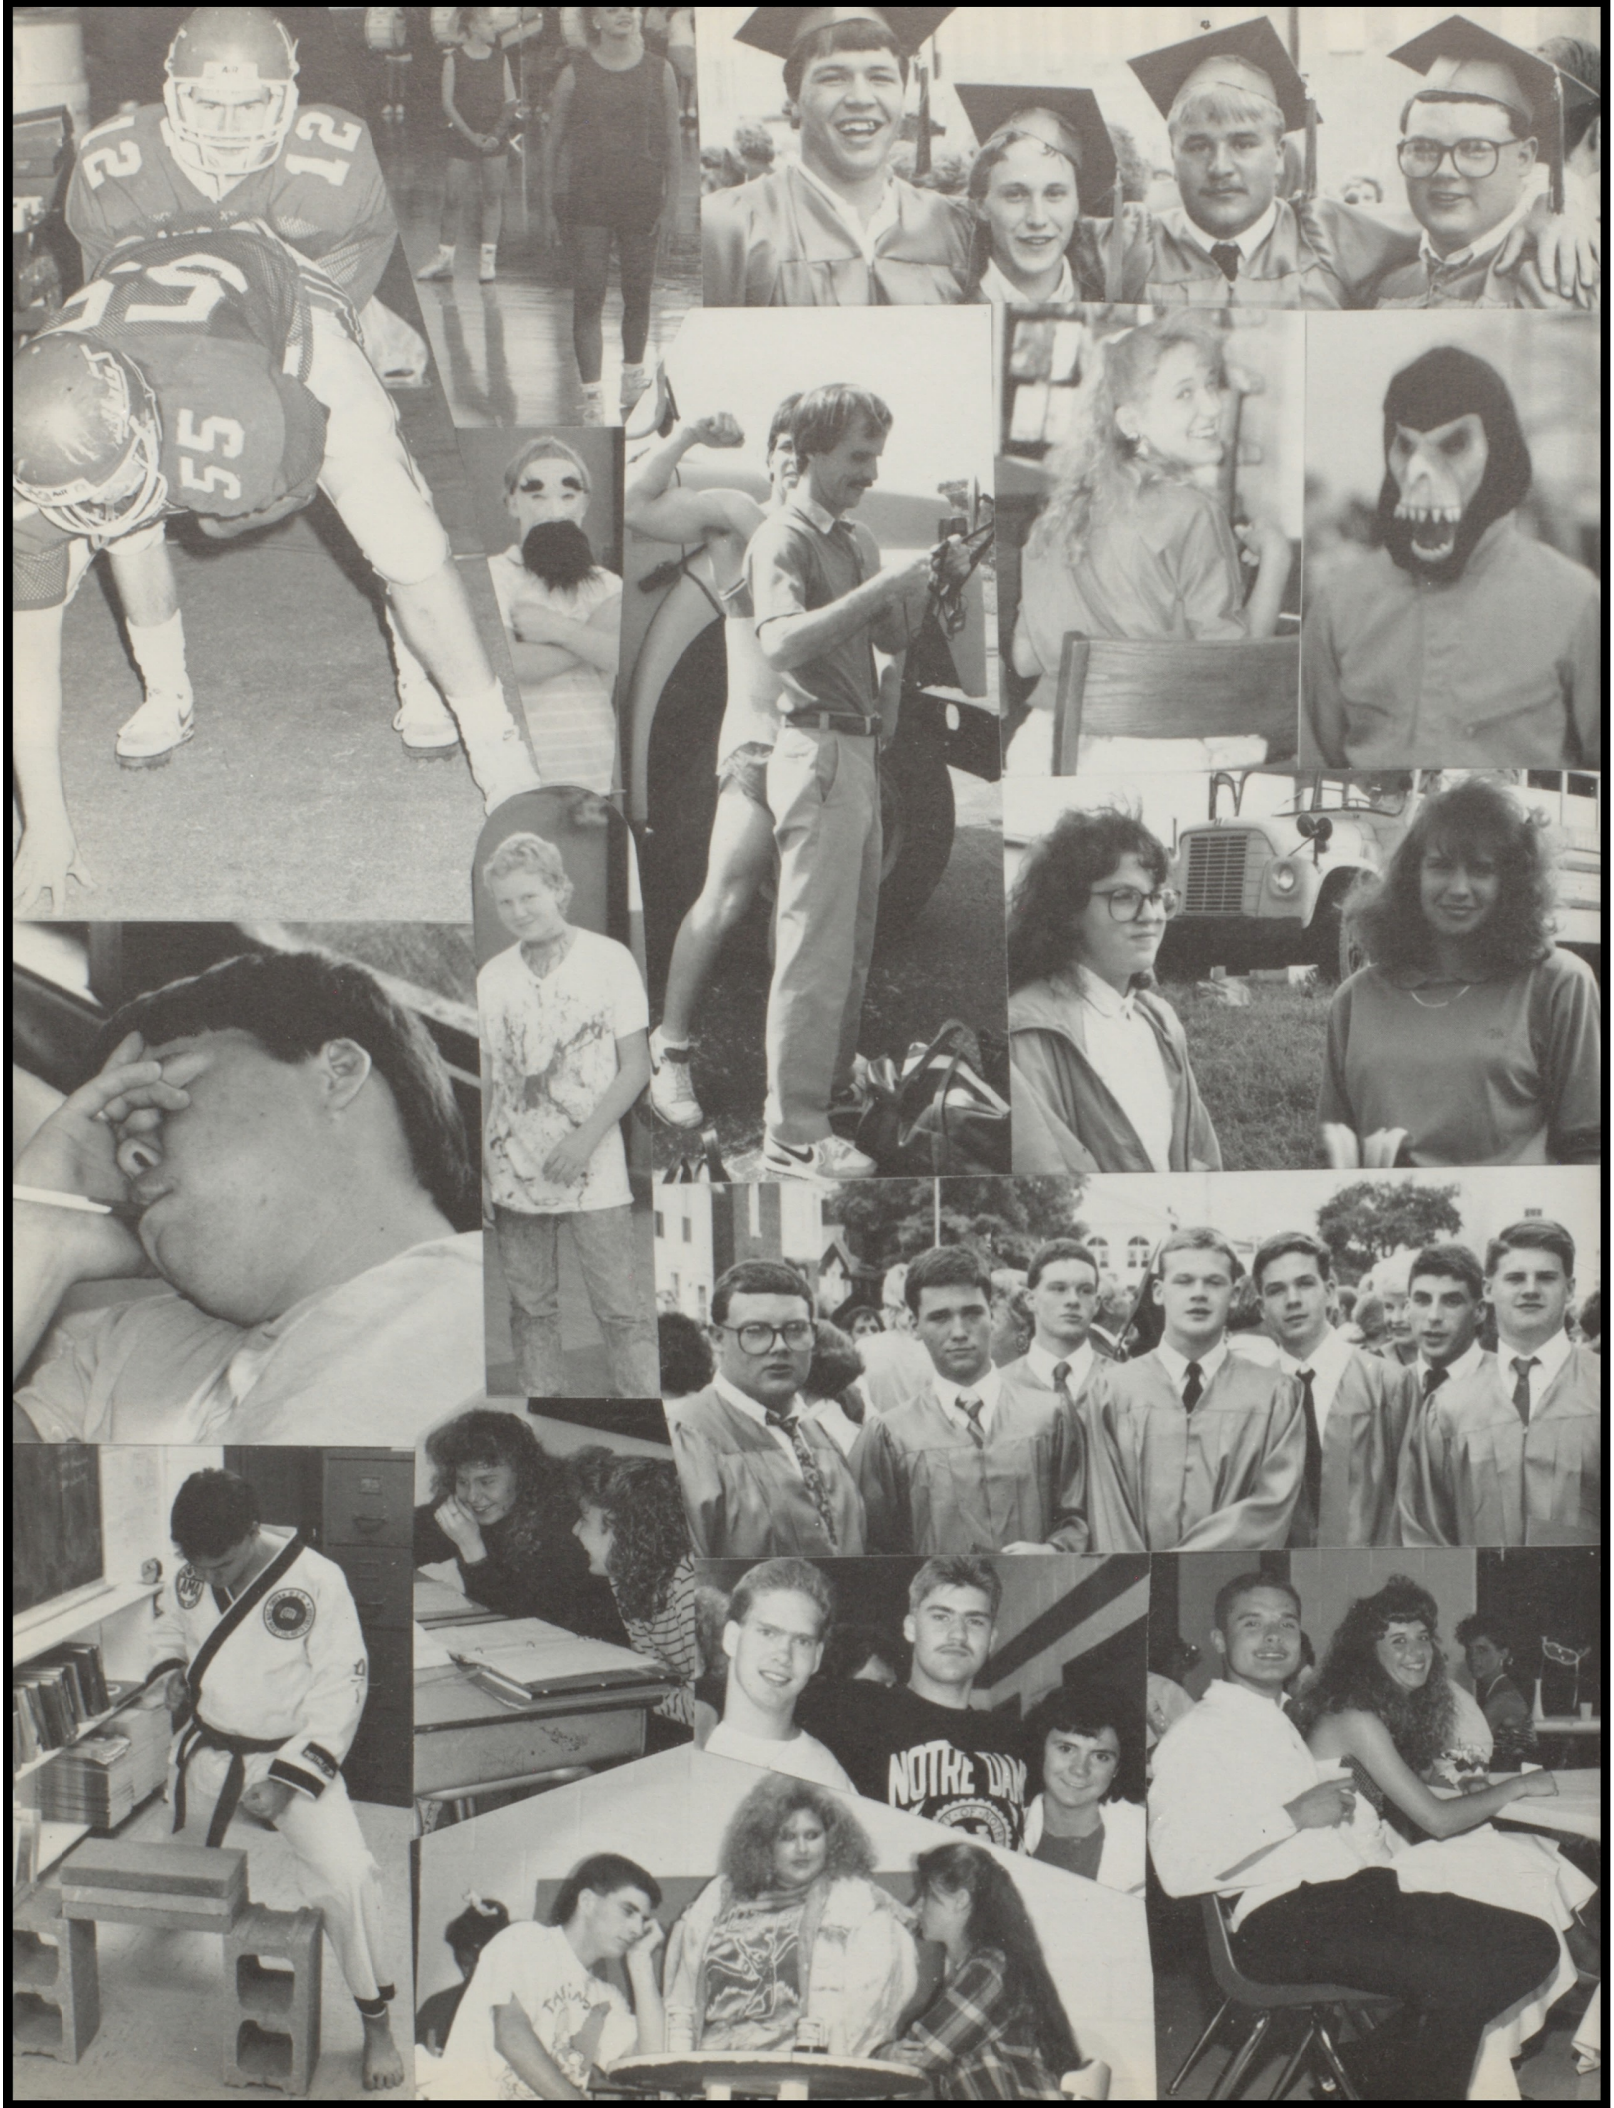

CLASS OF '90

END OF THE YEAR

1

1. Students go through the chow line at the Junior High picnic.

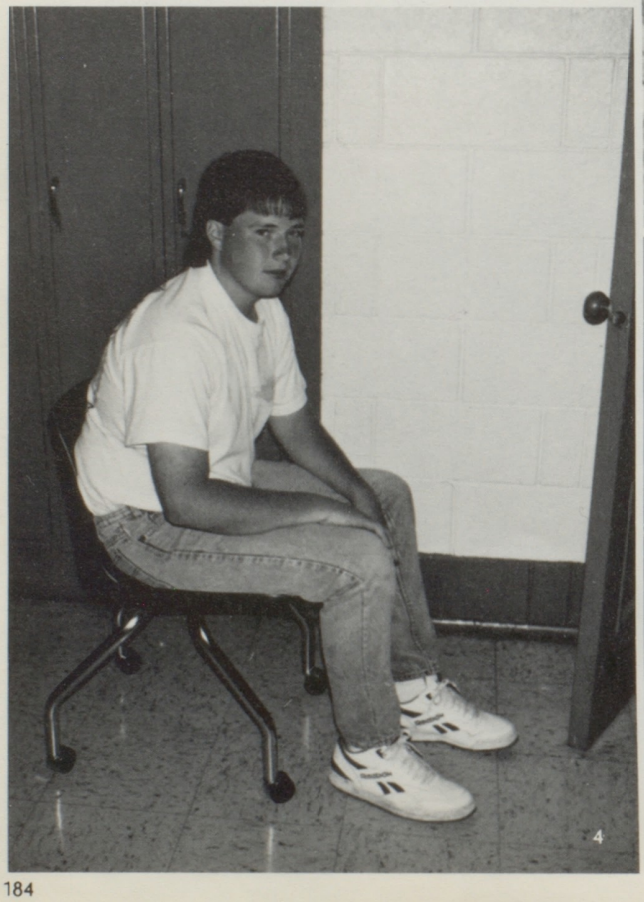

2. Seventh and eighth graders enjoy a picnic lunch.

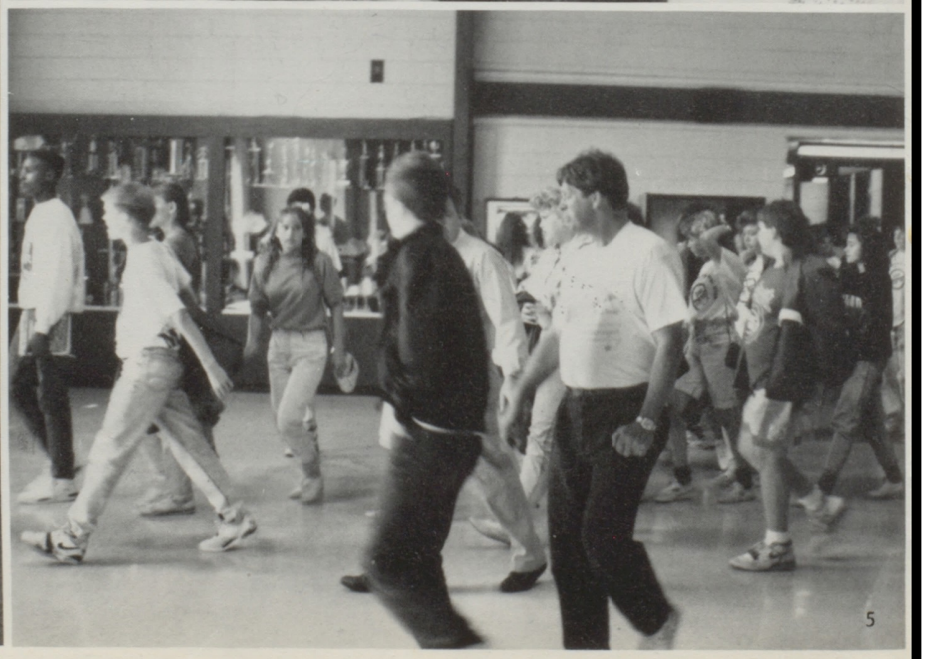

3. . . . and visions of babes danced in their heads.

4. Jason Via, does Mrs. Noel know where her chair is?

5. Students and teachers are eager to leave the building.

3

4

5

ACTIVITIES

1. Mrs. Slone gives Chris Mills a trash bag with strict instructions to "use it wisely."

2. Shannon Barnard and Allison Sherrow visit with the elementary students on Field Day.

3. Roger Lupson gets caught trying to throw away the evidence of a messy locker.

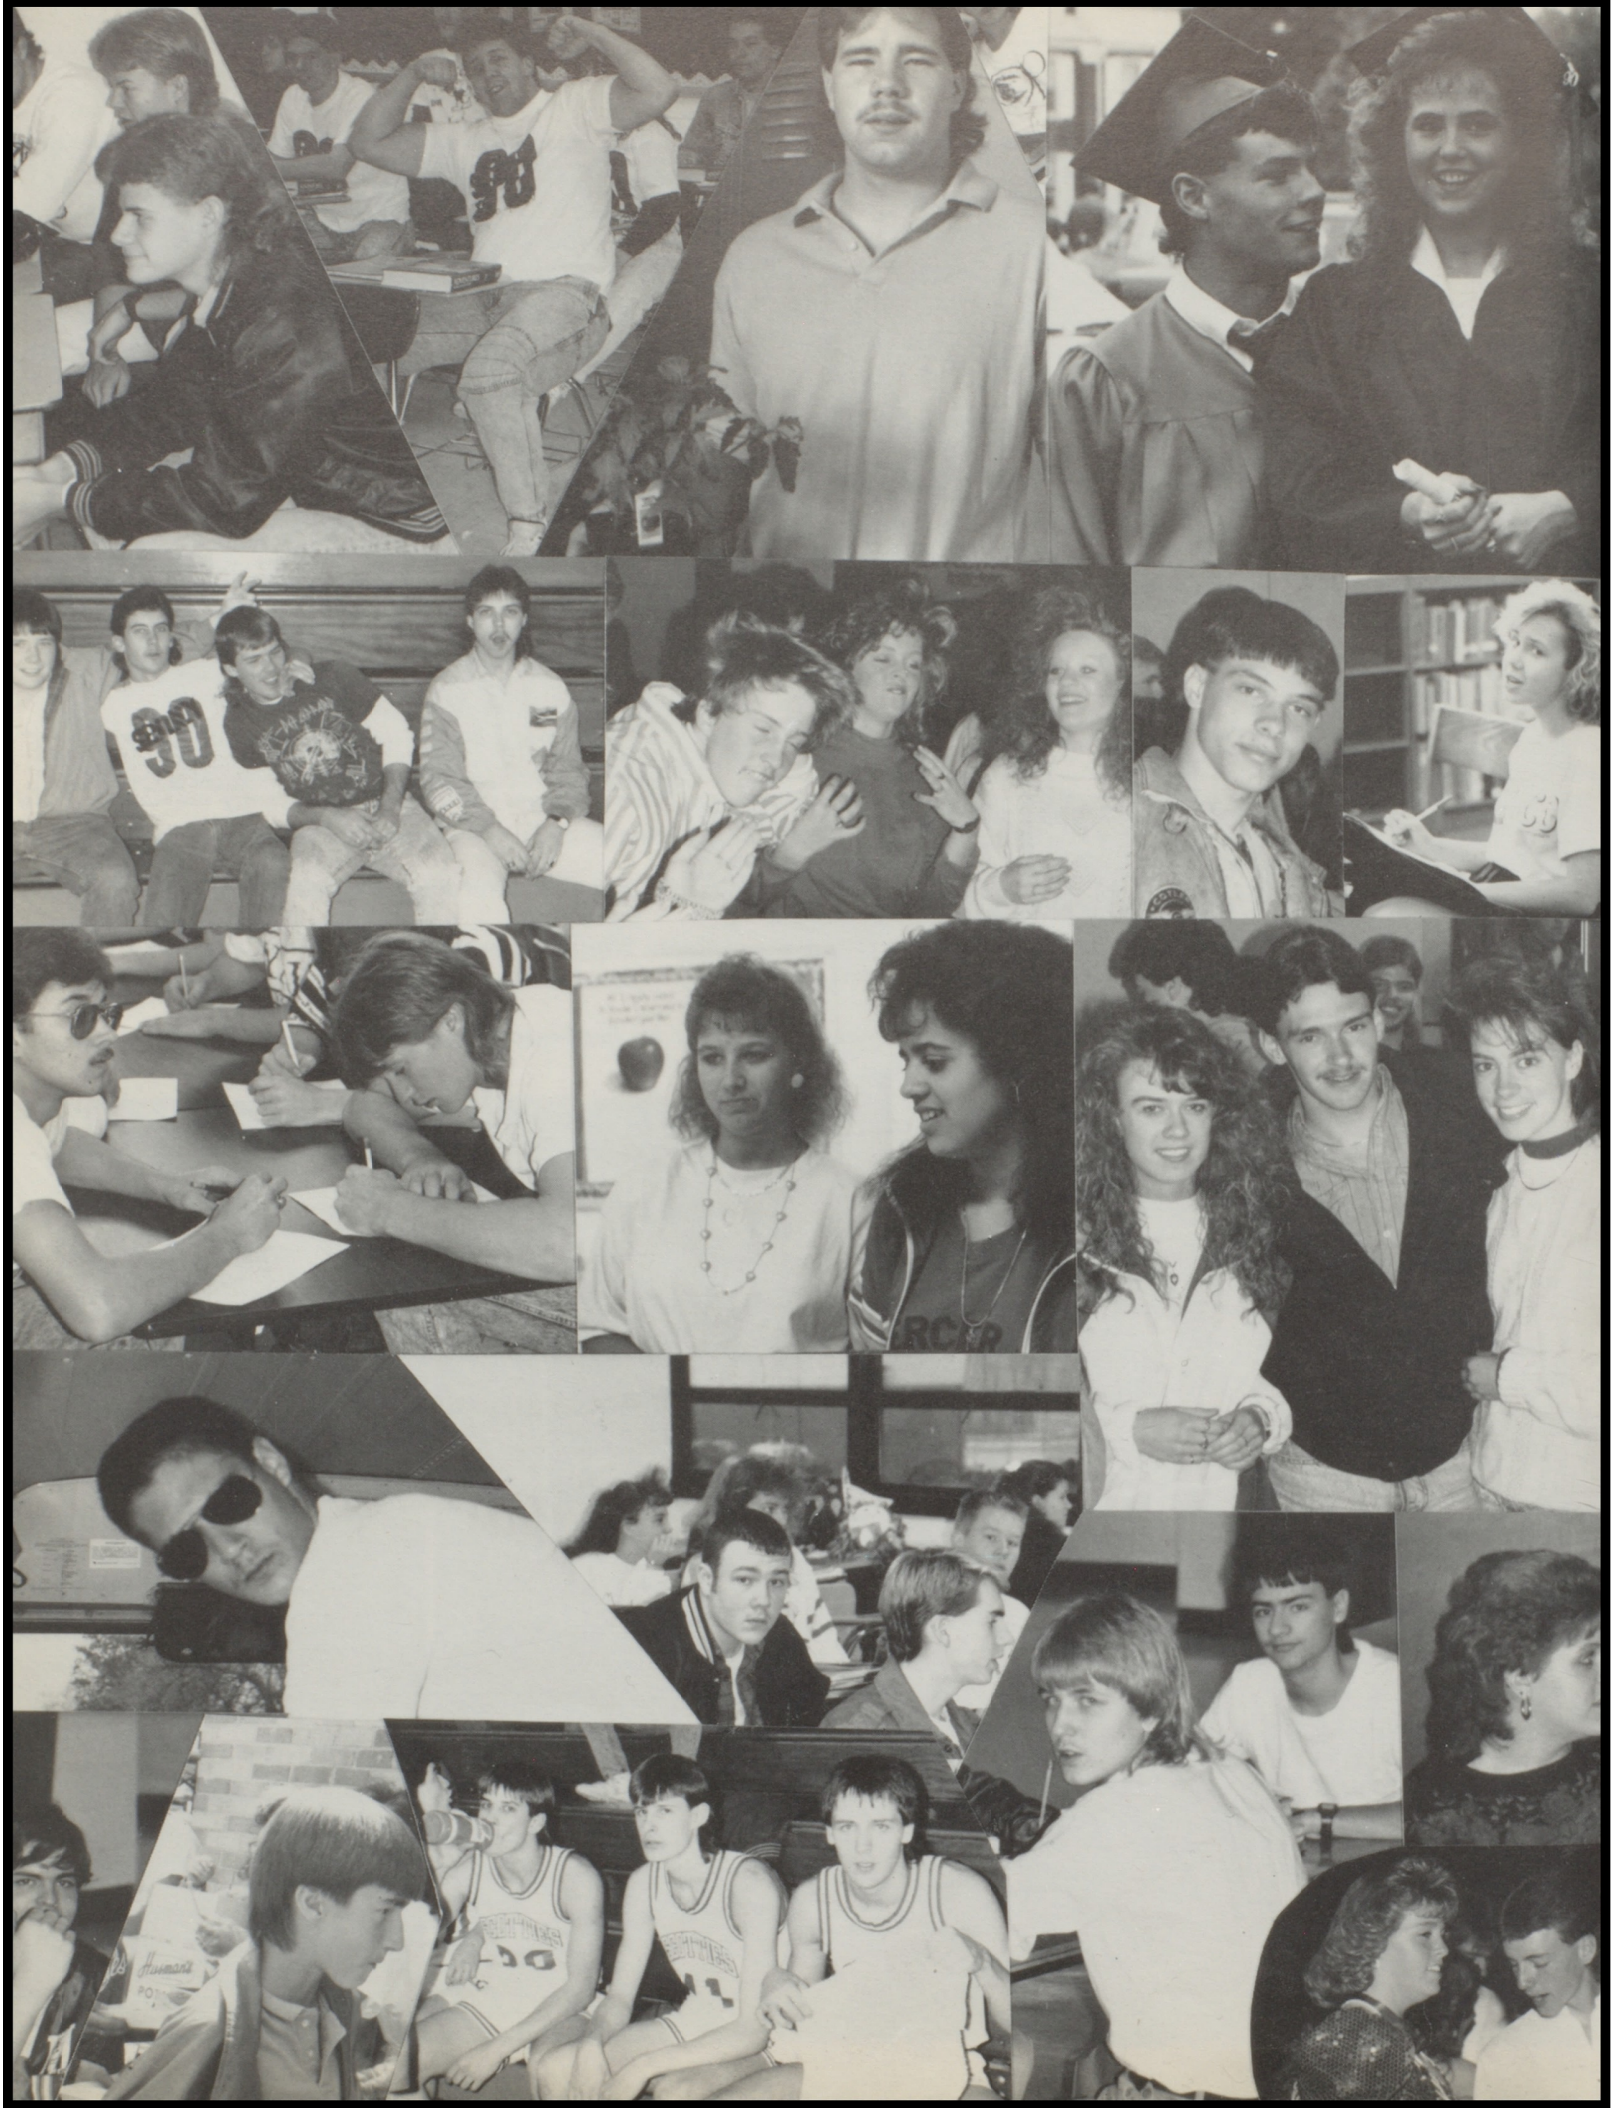

4. Bridget Yocum and Robin Whittaker do their best to clean up a year's worth of collected trash.

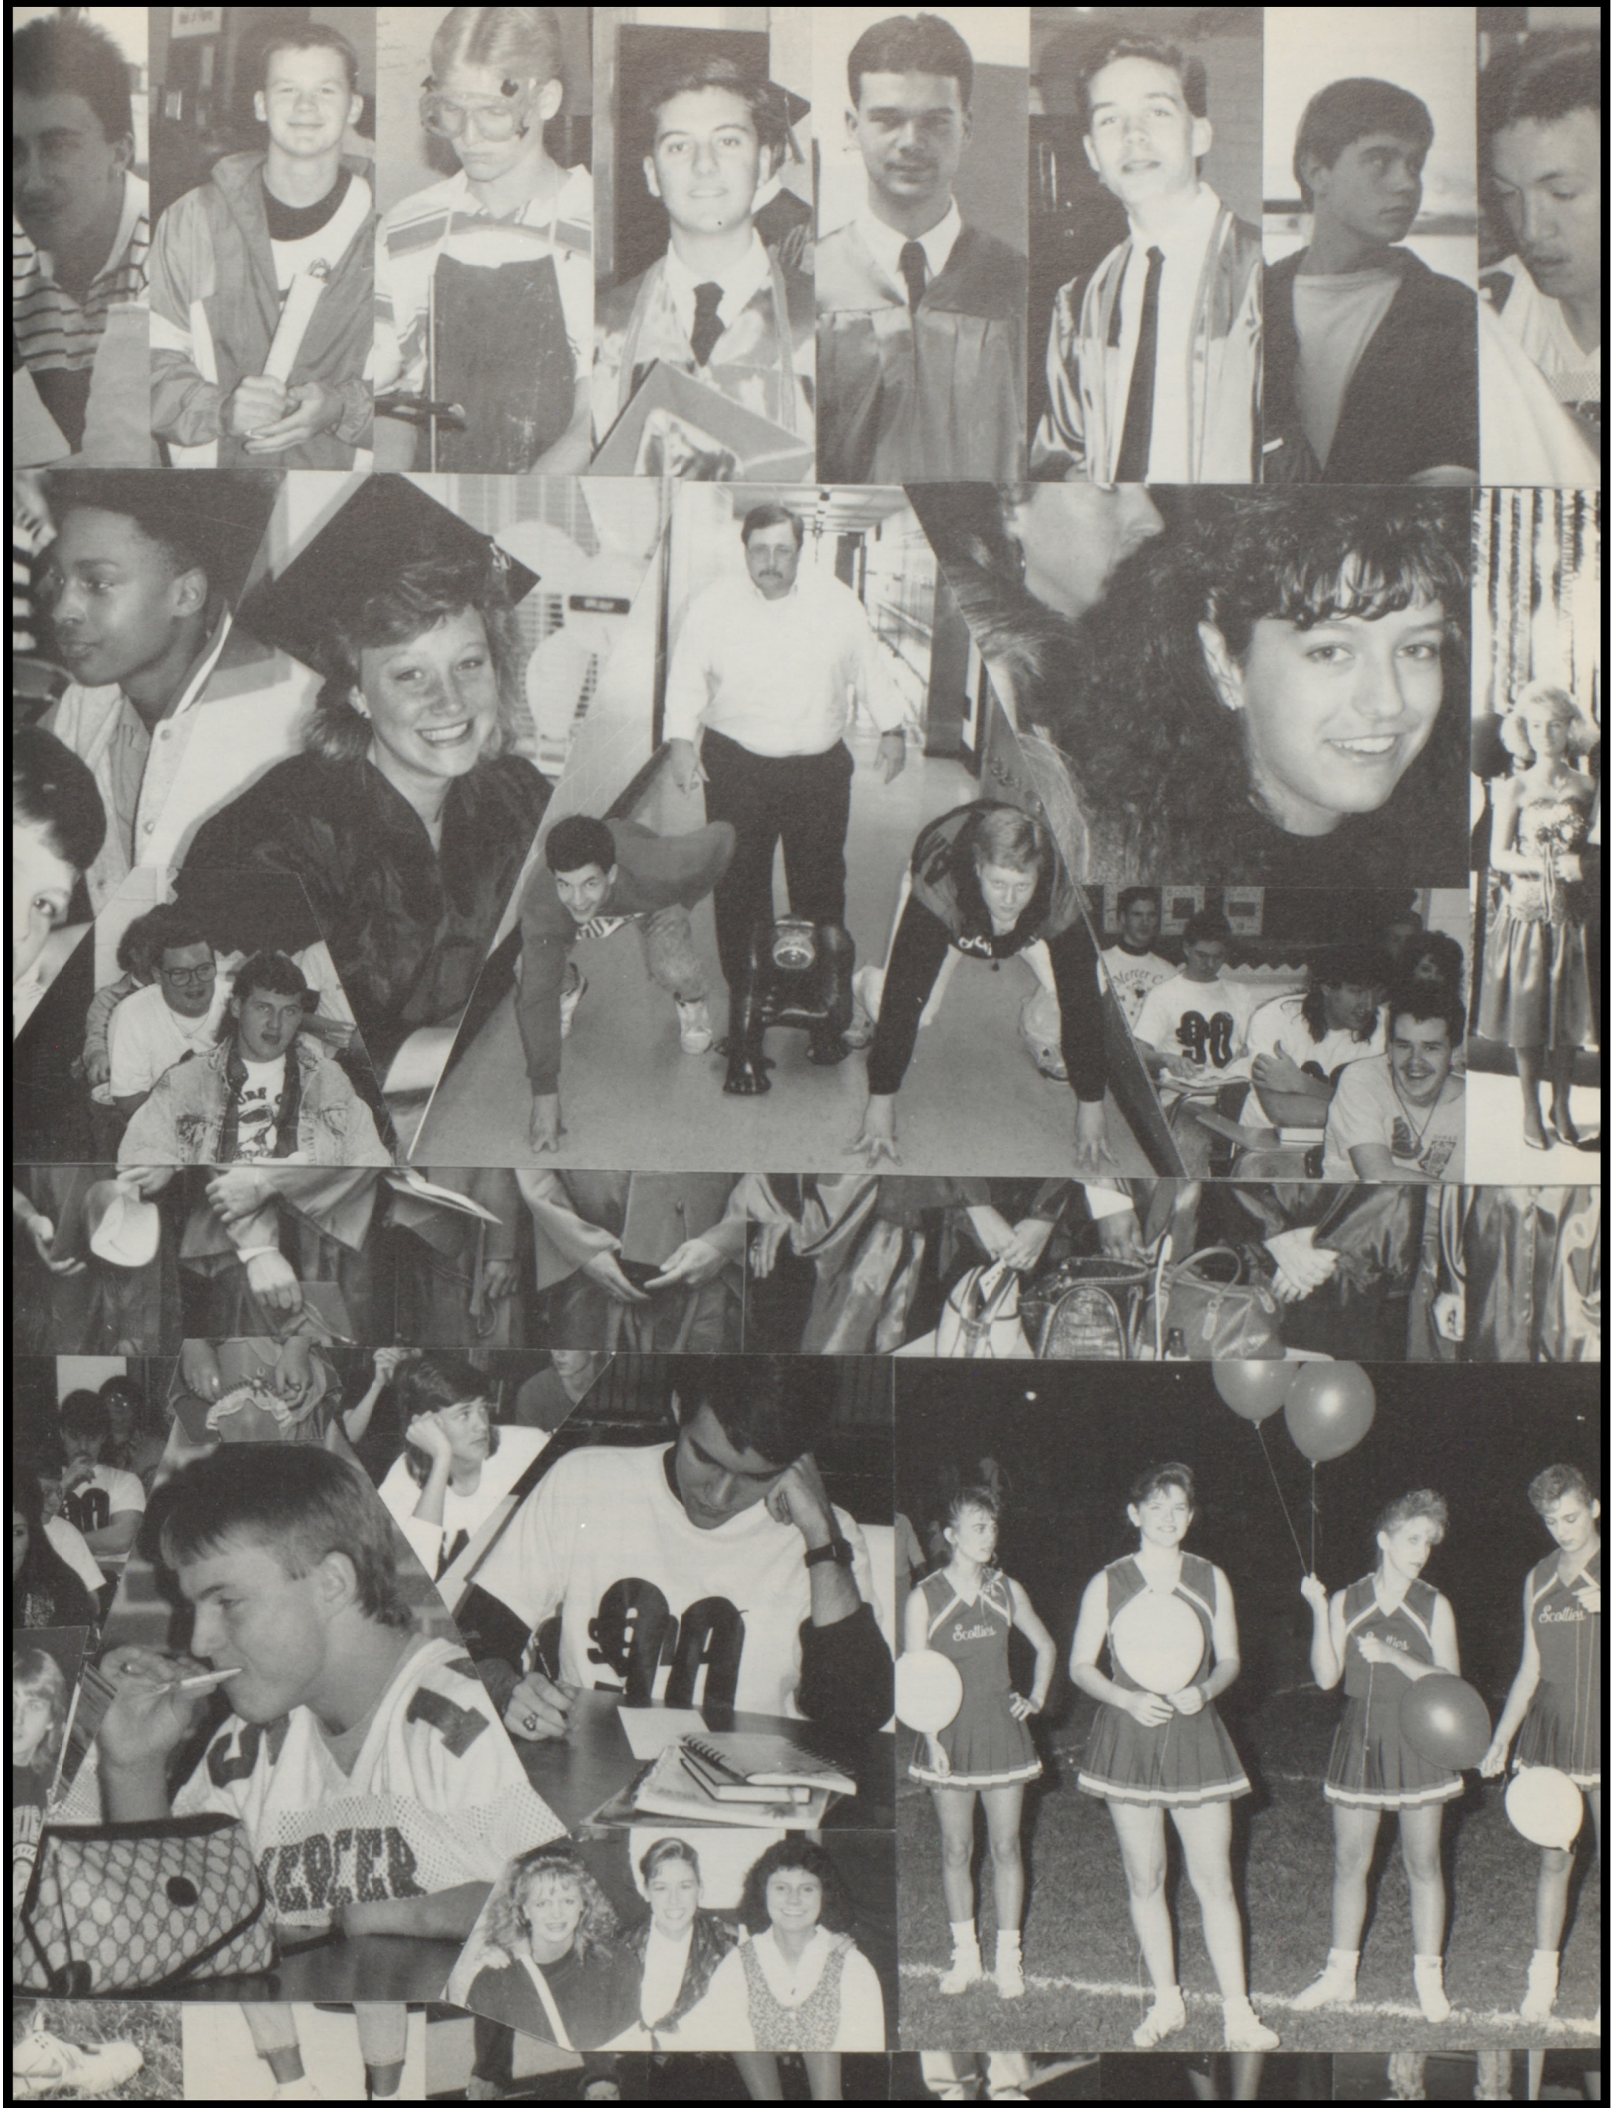

5. Chris Slone holds all of his hard-earned awards.

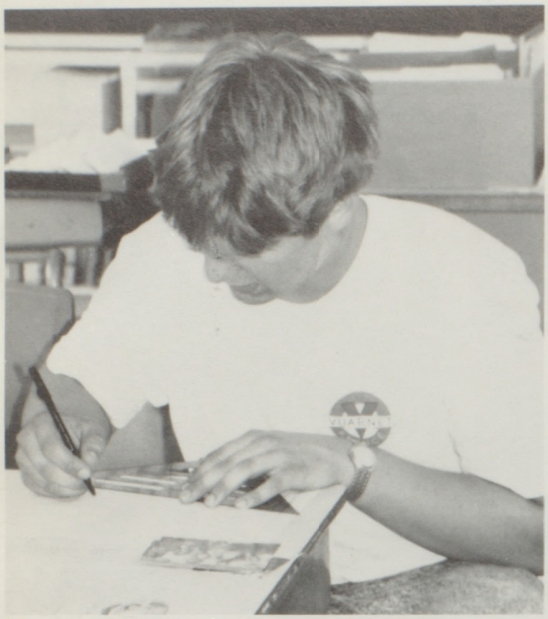

JOURNALISM

Come one, come all, to see the eighth wonder of the world: Hogan Easton doing journalism layouts.

The 1989-1990 Yearbook Staff: Row 1: Sarah Harmon, Jennifer Brady, Jason Graham, Dephanie Robinson, Hogan Easton, Becky Hale, Mary Darland, Angela Lane, Chris Turpin; Row 2: Jennifer Johnson, Kristi Steele, Tony Harrison, Aimee Inman, Allison Sherrow, Jennifer Bucher.

The artistic abilities of Becky Hale always seem to come in handy.

Spending every possible moment in the hall, Jennifer Johnson and Jennifer Brady always try to get out of journalism.

Dephanie Robinson and Jennifer Brady work together to get the job done.

Dedicated workers Allison Sherrow and Kristi Steele hope to complete their layouts before the deadline.

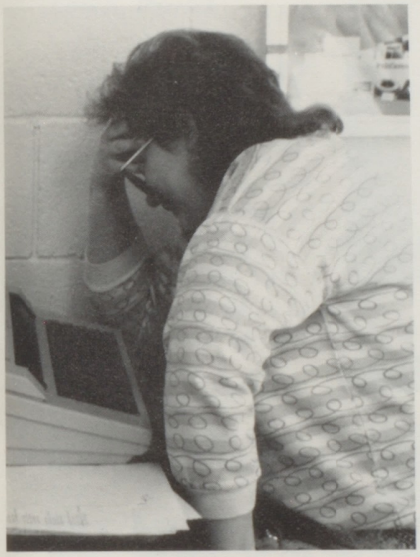

STAFF

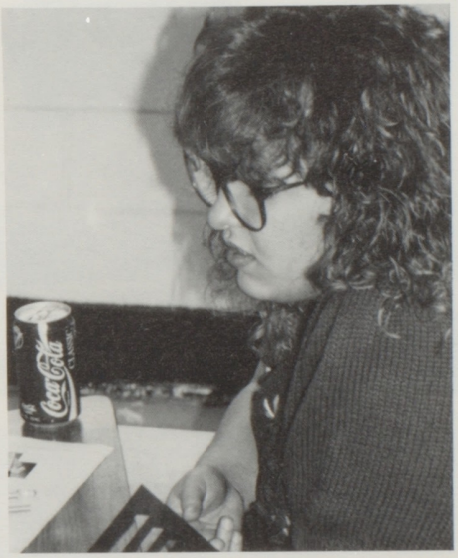

"Trust me," says Mrs. Lister to her students, "it could be worse. We could be condemned to doing club pictures everyday."

With her nose to the grindstone, Angela Lane doesn't quit until the job is done.

Sudden realization hits Aimee Inman: an editor's work is never done.

Mary Darland gets another headache from unfinished copy.

Debbie Sadler looks at the work ahead of her.

Tony Harrison decides that he likes it better on the other side of the camera.

DEFYING TRADITION

TO THE END

The theme of the 1990 Highlander, Defying Tradition, was selected by the staff after many hours of consideration. A staff with innovative imaginations helped develop this idea.

The staff would like to thank the faculty, administration, and ad sponsors for their support and cooperation. As many staff members found out, extra hours were required to put this book together. No one knows this better than our advisor, Mrs. Lister. On behalf of the 1989-90 Yearbook Staff, I would like to thank her and wish her good luck next year.

Aimee Inman
Editor-in-Chief

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of men must sever —
And it well may be for a day and a night,
And it well may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past our knowing).
A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart
On the ways we all are going!
— Richard Hovey
