

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Glave Goddard,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Statement.

Albert Cloyd &c.,

Defendants.

The plaintiff Glave Goddard states that the defendant Albert Cloyd and Mary A. Cloyd are indebted to him in the sum of $60.00, with 6% per annum interest thereon from date of June, 8, 1921, subject to a credit of $20.00, paid Oct, 22, 1921, evidenced by defendants certain promissory note which they on the 8th, day of June, 1921, executed and delivered to plaintiff and by the term of which they promised and agreed to pay plaintiff the above named amount and interest; he says that said note is just due and unpaid except the said $20.00 and he files said note herewith as a part hereof.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment against the defendants Albert Cloyd and Mary A. Cloyd, for the said sum of $60.00 with 6% per annum interest thereon from the 8th, day of June, 1921, till paid, subject to above credit of $20.00, paid Oct, 22, 1921, for his costs and whatever relief he may appear entitled to.
