

Plaintiffs

Hunter Coleman & W.B. Goddard,

VS.

~~Ernest Wilton~~, & Ft. Harrod
Garage, Garnishee

Defendants

Plaintiffs, Hunter Coleman and W.B. Goddard state that the defendant, Ernest Wilton, is indebted to them in the sum of $34.00 for professional services rendered to said defendant at his special instance and request; that said account is just, due and unpaid and the demand has been made upon defendant he has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part of the same.

Wherefore, etc.

Plaintiffs state that this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay money, that the claim is just and these plaintiffs believe they ought to recover thereon the full amount of the claim, to wit, $34.00; that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution sufficient to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore, Plaintiffs ask for judgment against defendant for the sum of $34.00; for their costs and for a general order of attachment of the defendant's property, including the garnishee, and prays further for all relief general and special to which he may appear to be entitled.
