Robert Horn,

Plaintiff.

--VS--

Petition.

J. R. Dean,

Defendant.

The plaintiff Robert Horn states that the defendant J.R. Dean is indebted to him for seed wheat which the plaintiff furnished to the defendant, at his special instance and request and for which he agreed to pay, in the sum of Seventy Five Dollars; he says that said amount is just, due and unpaid and that he beleives that he should recover said amount from the defendant with interest and costs of this action. He says that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiffs demand and the demand of defendants creditors.

Wherefor plaintiff Robert Horn prays judgment against the defendant J.R. Dean for the said sum of $75.00, with 6% interest thereon ffrom the 15th, day of October, 1921, till paid, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, for his costs and for whatever relief the plaintiff may appear entitled to.
