

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Fort Harrod Motor Company,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Statement and affidavit. $12,00.

John McDaniel,

Defendant.

Plaintiff Fort Harrod Motor Company says that it is a partnership composed of ~~WAXXXX~~ Walter Martin and G.L.Johnson, doing a general Automobile Business in the City of Harrodsburg, Ky; it says that the defendant John McDaniel is indebted to it in the sum of a balance of $12,00, for tires furnished to the defendant and for which he promised and agreed to pay; it says that said account is just, due and unpaid and that no part of same has been paid.

It says that the defendant has no property in this State or not enough therof subject to execution to satisfy the claim of plaintiff or the demand of defendants creditors and that the collection of its claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment agsint the defendant for the sum of $12,00, with 6% interest thereon from the first day of Jany, 1926, till paid, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, that Ed. Phillips be summoned as a garnishee herein, for its costs and for whatever relief it may appear entitled to.

Chas. J. Dore

Attorney for plaintiff.

The affiant G.L.Johnson says that he is one of the partners of Martin and Johnson, known as the Ford Harrod Motor Company and that the above statement is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.
