The plaintiff, R.L. Black, states that on the first day of October, 1921, the defendants, Willie Norton and Onis Overstreet, executed and delivered to A.K. Norton their certain promissory note for the sum of $58.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 3% from date until due and payable in 3 months from date. He says that in a short time thereafter and before the maturity of said note the said A.K. Norton by a blank endorsement thereon and for value received negotiated said note to the plaintiff herein and that he, the said plaintiff, is now the holder in due course and owner of said note. He says no part of said note or any interest thereon has ever been paid. Note as filed herewith is requested.
