S.S. Riley's Admr.

Vs. Order.

George Shoemaker &c

Whereas the key of this court in this case an order was entered directing the Commissioner to make for M. Mattingly a deed to a certain tract of land sold in this case, and whereas said deed was made in accord with said order it now appearing that in writing said order there was a clerical mistake in the initials of said Mattingly and in the spelling of his name, it is now ordered that the Commissioner now withdraw said deed and correct the name therein so as to make said deed to R.T. Mattingly. This order is now entered nunc pro tunc, in lieu of the
