

DEATHS

HOUP

Mrs. Amanda E. Houp, 66, wife of George Houp, died at her home at High Bridge, this county, Thursday night of pneumonia.

Besides her husband she is survived by five daughters Mrs. Ernest Cornman, Mrs. Jess Savage and Mrs. J. B. Givens, all of West Virginia; Mrs. Sam Demmert and Mrs. Ollie Shryock, both of High Bridge, and three sons, Arthur, Wesley, and Walter Houp, all of High Bridge.

Funeral services were held at High Bridge at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

SIEMER

Rev. Sebastian Siemer, O. S. B., priest at St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, Danville, died Thursday afternoon, April 16, 1936, and his funeral was conducted at 10 o'clock Monday morning by the Most Rev. John A. Floerch, Bishop of Louisville, and the Rev. Francis Timony, of the Holy Name Church, Louisville. Rev. Clarence Meyers, of Harrodsburg, was in attendance. The body was taken to Culman, Ala., for burial at the Benedict Monastery.

Father Sebastian had been the Catholic priest at Danville for 14 years. He formerly included in his charge St. Andrew's church, Harrodsburg, and St. Nicholas church, at Rose Hill. Born at Covington he was a member of the order of St. Benedict and was ordained 30 years ago. He was educated for the ministry at the Catholic Mission School, Washington, D. C., and was ordained at Sheffield, Ala., served as priest at St. Joseph church there from 1906 to 1922, when he came to Danville.

WEST

The body of Miss Sarah West, who died at Trinidad, Colo., Sunday, arrived in Lexington Friday night and was taken to the residence of her sister, Mrs. James Forsythe, of 721 Euclid avenue, where services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. T. M. Giltner, pastor of the Woodland Christian church, officiating. Interment was in the family lot in the Harrodsburg cemetery. Bearers were James M. Forsythe, E. H. Forsythe, James M. Forsythe, Jr., George Forsythe, Robert Forsythe and John L. Forsythe.

GAITHER

Mrs. Elizabeth Hall Gaither, wife of Mr. Edgar B. Gaither, died Saturday afternoon, April 18, 1936, at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital after a serious illness covering several weeks. During the time she had improved sufficiently to be moved to her home on Beaumont avenue, but it was necessary to take her back to the hospital and the end came the next day. Mrs. Gaither, one of the most prominent and lovable young matrons of this city, was born in St. Louis, and her parents moved to Mexico City, Mexico, when she was a small child, where she was reared. Mr. Gaither was in business there and the marriage took place in that city, where they remained for some years before coming to Harrodsburg to reside. Mrs. Gaither was a gifted artist and linguist and was popular here with all who knew her. She was forty years of age. Members of her family have been with her during her illness.

Her father died five or six years ago and she is survived by her husband, Mr. Edgar Gaither, a young son, Basil Gaither, her mother, Mrs. Henry Hall, Mexico City, two brothers, James Hall, Tampico, Mexico, and Raymond Hall, Mexico City, two sisters, Mrs. Henry Parker, New York City and Mrs. Allan Armstrong, Mexico City.

The funeral was at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Gaither residence on Beaumont avenue, conducted by the Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, pastor of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. John W. Carpenter of the United Presbyterian church. Burial was in Spring Hill cemetery. The bearers were Sam E. Cooke, T. Sloan Eastland, Charles Pearson, Byford Sanders, Hugh Crozier and W. W. Ensminger.

HARLOW

Fred Lee Harlow, 36 years old, died Sunday morning, April 19, 1936, as the result of an automobile collision with a train, death being instantaneous. He was the son of William Harlow and the late Mrs. Nannie Dean Harlow, and is survived by his father and one niece, Mrs. Burnel McRay, of Salvisa. The funeral was on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Bruner's Chapel, conducted by the pastor, Rev. George M. Trout, assisted by Rev. E. M. Gash. Burial was in the chapel cemetery. The bearers were Ellis Trauder, Hansford and Claude Harlow, Homer Donovan and James Jackson.

BAKER

Charles Hinkle Baker, who was 26 years of age, died April 20, 1936, at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital from injuries suffered in the same wreck in which Fred Harlow lost his life. He was the son of T. D. and Fannie Stucker Baker, who survive, and three brothers, Tom, Silas, and Luther Baker, and five sisters, Mrs. Mary Long, Mrs. Annie Frazier, Mrs. A. Greenville, of Shelby county, and also ten nieces and five nephews. The funeral was held at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at Providence church at McAfee and burial was in the Providence cemetery. Rev. G. W. Eilers conducted the service. The bearers were Ed Yeaste, Osband Dean, Argo Dean, James Vandiver, Raymond Ham, Marshall Moore and John Frazier.

WILHAM

Mrs. Amanda Brown Wilham, widow of J. W. Wilham, died at her home in Burgin at 10:30 Monday morning, April 20, 1936, after a lingering illness of about two years.

Mrs. Wilham was 53 years of age and the daughter of John and Maggie Brown. Her husband died four years ago and she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Guy Phillips, Cincinnati; Miss Maggie D. Wilham, Ed. Garnett and J. W. Wilham, all of Burgin. She also leaves a brother, Miller Brown, Burgin, and a sister, Mrs. Levi Robinson, Shakertown.

The funeral was at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. O. Carter, of the Baptist church at Burgin. The burial was in the Burgin cemetery.

McGINNIS

A delayed message has been received here of the death of a former Kentucky man, Jordan Peter McGinnis, at his home, 911 South Main street, Clinton, Missouri, on March 19. He was born in Perryville, Feb. 14, 1859. He was married to Miss Mary Ellett Bonta, of Rose Hill in 1879 and they moved from Kentucky to Clinton forty-four years ago.

Five years ago, Dec. 26, his kindly wife passed away and after her death he went back to his old home in Kentucky to visit his friends and relatives.

Two children are living, Jessie McGinnis and Mrs. Harry Baldock, both of Clinton, and three grandchildren, one brother, Ambrose McGinnis, of Mercer county, and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Lee Roney, of Springfield.

A clipping from his home town paper, Clinton Democrat, quotes the following: "He was an active Democrat and was ever foremost to lead his party banner in every campaign. He led a active life. For a number of years he was employed by the Wells-Fargo Express Company. He was also employed for a number of years as crossing watchman of the M. K. & T. railroad. He served as a member of the city council and was marshal, special policeman and night watchman at various times. He was one of the city's special policemen at the time of his last illness. He was a man of vigor and determination, and was a man to gain recognition and make lasting friendships."

On Saturday afternoon, March 21 at 3 o'clock, the Christian church, of which he was a member, was filled with sorrowing friends and neighbors who came to show their love and respect to the deceased, J. P. McGinnis. There were many beautiful floral tokens. Interment in Englewood cemetery.

O'REILLY

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Reilly (nee Eckert), 79 years old, wife of Dennis O'Reilly and daughter of the late Charles E. Eckert, passed away Saturday, April 18, 1936, at the home of her daughter in Dayton, Ky. Her death was sudden and a shock to her many friends. Mrs. O'Reilly formerly lived in Lexington and Harrodsburg many years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Candiotto, of Dayton, Ky., and Mrs. Kathryn Murphy, of Indianapolis, Indiana, and a son, John O'Reilly, four grandchildren and one great grandson. Services were held at St. Anthony's church in Bellevue, Ky., and burial was Tuesday at St. Stephens Cemetery in Newport, Ky.

Mr. Charles E. Spouse, a nephew of this city, attended the funeral.

EVANS

Mrs. H. A. Evans, 75 years old, died Tuesday, April 21, 1936, after an illness of pneumonia. She was a native of Harrodsburg and before her marriage was Miss Martha Polk, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Polk, her father having been a well known member of the Harrodsburg bar. She was married to H. A. Evans, whose death occurred in Texas in 1900.

Mrs. Evans came of prominent pioneer families on both sides and inherited the splendid qualities of character of her ancestors. She was a lovely, cultured woman, gentle and cordial in manner, and her fine christian outlook found expression in activities for her church. She was formerly president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Louisville Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the first to unite the local and foreign work. Her labors along this line brought her recognition throughout the state.

She is survived by one brother, Mr. W. G. Polk, president of the Tennessee Jellico Coal Company, of Knoxville, Tenn.; and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Margaret Polk, Harrodsburg, with whom she had made her home for some years. She also leaves several nieces and nephews. Members of her family were with her when the end came.

The funeral was from the residence of Miss Margaret Polk, Lexington street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. R. Tomlin, pastor of the Methodist church. Burial in the family lot in Spring Hill cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Skeels, Jr., Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Miss Eleanor Montgomery, Atlanta, Ga.; Harry Montgomery, of Anthon, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Polk, William and Mildred Polk, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mrs. Sam McDowell, Danville; Mrs. W. C. Kern, Miss Hattie Kern, Mrs. Rutledge Crooker, Perryville; Dr. Charles W. Hibbitt and Mrs. Roche Fannelli, Louisville.

MERCER COUNTY'S ABLE JUDGE VISITS DANVILLE

The following is from Vernon Richardson's column in the Danville Advocate Tuesday:

Though he is as youthful as anyone you will find for his years and they, in fact, are not so many, yet Charles T. Corn, who presides with great intelligence, dignity and with a heart bubbling over with the milk of human kindness, over the Fiscal Court of Mercer county, was in Danville today attending Circuit Court. Judge Corn is a graduate of Centre College and one of the brightest students of his day and an orator of great ability.

After Judge Corn finished his course at Centre he taught school in Hogsett Academy, which was a flourishing school in that day and

BURGIN 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Burgin 4-H Club is now fully organized and every member is striving to attain the 100% completion goal that was set at the first meeting. Due to the large enrollment in the girls' section, four groups have been organized.

Group No. 1. Clothing—consists of the beginners, is under the leadership of Mrs. John Denny. The entire group has finished several hand-made articles and are now working on their aprons and head bands. At each meeting these girls spend a few minutes at the sewing machine learning to operate it so they will have a good general knowledge of the machine by the time they commence on their simple print dresses. This group meets every Wednesday at 2:40-3:40.

Group No. 2. Clothing—consists of older girls under the direction of Mrs. Robert West. This class meets on Thursday for one hour after school. The girls have selected their school outfits and are working very industriously to complete them before school is out.

Group No. 1. Foods—Is supervised by Mrs. Charles Sanders, assisted by Mrs. James Cox. This group is very interested in its weekly meetings. The study of breakfasts and the serving of meals at home for home-work has caught the interest of every girl in the class.

This group is sponsoring a recreational party for both the boys and girls at the Burgin high school cafeteria, Tuesday night, April 28th. The girls are divided into teams and each team will plan a part of the evening's entertainment.

Group No. 2. Foods—Lead by Mrs. T. C. Thompson, consists of junior and senior girls. These girls are very busy with their various activities but are working hard to complete the entire unit before the school term is over.

The entire girls' section is supervised by Mrs. Cecil Wilder and the boys' section is under the leadership of Mr. John VanArsdale.
