

of a one-fifteenth undivided interest in and to the lands set out in the be-the plaintiff, Ella Thomas, with George Thomas as her husband, is the owner
The Court being advised, is of opinion and so adjudge, that the Court of Appeals which is granted.
All of which they, and each of them object and except and say in answer to

to the beginning, containing 20 acres, more or less, being the same land conveyed to the heirs of Walker Williams by deed of Elizabeth A. Davis dated 1877 recorded in D. B. 45 pages 562&c.

The Court adjudges that Ella Thomas owns a one-fifteenth interest in said lands subject to the lien above set out, and that Dowling Brothers own fourteen-fifteenths thereof undivided, and the funds arising from the sale thereof will be divided accordingly.

Ella Thomas et al vs
Dowling Bros et al
Plffs

JUDGMENT

Dated

1882
J. C. 274
J. C. 274