CARD OF APPRECIATION—To our many friends who helped us so valiantly during the fire on December 24th at Mackville which destroyed our home, sheltering us in their homes and helping to replace much of what we lost. But after all let us give our Heavenly Father all the glory for we feel that it is only the effects of our Savior's teaching, "Bear Ye one another's burdens," C. T. Gabhart and family.

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to express our deep appreciation for all the kindness and sympathy shown by every one during the illness and death of our dear one, Mrs. Leslie Tatum. Especially the singers, those who sent flowers, and Mr. Sims for his kindness. May God's richest blessings rest and abide with each one. Husband, Children, Father, Mother and Brother.

STOCK AND PEOPLE
I am the only man in this town that sells drenches for cows and horses and a liniment for gargle or swollen udder. It is bad to see a good cow's swollen udder without holding his hand over it's nose, and you look around at her eyes, and they are full of water, she is crying it hurts her so. This trouble is the same as a woman with weed in her breast. The cure for same, go and get you a handful of sheep's wool, bring it home and hold it to the fire and look over and see if the sheep's oil has come to the surface of the wool, and when its not too hot put it over the breast and in 9 minutes your pain is gone.

DEATHS

McDOWELL

Mrs. Georgia Allin McDowell, 75 died at her home on the Keene road, Wednesday night, January 1, 1936, following two weeks illness of paralysis. Mrs. McDowell was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Jennie Taylor Allin, former citizens of Mercer county, and besides her husband, Samuel W. McDowell, she is survived by two sons, Allin and Samuel W. McDowell, Jr., also five grandchildren of Jessamine county. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. B. O. Beck with burial in Maple Grove cemetery. The pall bearers were J. T. Edwards, W. H. Bronston, John McDowell, Nicholasville; Edward Jack and Thomas Allin, of Harrodsburg.

GRITTON

Thomas R. Gritton, life resident of Mercer county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. D. Royce, in Boyle county, at 8:15 of New Year's day. Eight years ago on New Year's Day at 3 o'clock his wife, Minerva, preceded him on that journey from which no traveler returns. His eldest daughter, Mrs. Jack Allin, died last May.

He would have been 80 years old had he lived until next March, having been born March 28, 1856. He was one of a family of two boys and six girls only one of whom remains, Mrs. Annie G. Dorn, now living in Toronto, Canada. Among others to mourn his death are four daughters, Mrs. Holman Hogue, Mrs. F. D. Royce, Mrs. H. D. Ransdell, and Mrs. Hugh Ison; 21 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren. His name is associated with the roll of the Christian church of Harrodsburg, in which city and surrounding territory he leaves a host of acquaintances and friends. He was ever a friend to one in need and a good neighbor. Funeral services were held at the Harrodsburg Christian church Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, pastor, and Rev. M. T. Hart, pastor of the Danville Christian church, officiating. Burial followed in Spring Hill cemetery. Pall bearers were Curtis and Allen Ransdell, English Bell, Forrest Hogue, Eddie Wright, and Tom Allin.

BONTA

News of the sudden death of Dr. Maurice Bonta, 61 in Los Angeles, California, about 11 o'clock Saturday night, January 4, 1936, was received here by his brother, Mr. L. R. Bonta, College street. Dr. Bonta was born and reared in Harrodsburg, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bonta, who lived a short distance from Harrodsburg on the Danville road. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Lee Bonta, of Los Angeles; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Van Deren and Miss Lena Bonta, both of Lexington, formerly of Harrodsburg, and a brother, Mr. L. R. Bonta, Harrodsburg.

Dr. Bonta was graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, and also Johns Hopkins University. For a number of years he was a member of the staff of the Mayo Brothers Clinic at Rochester, Minn. About five years ago he decided to take up office practice in the West and located at Los Angeles. During December he was injured when a truck came suddenly and without warning from a side street and crashed into his car. He suffered several broken ribs and cuts and bruises, and the shock was especially severe. While no particulars of the death have been received here at this time, it is thought by relatives that the shock of the accident may have been a contributing cause to his death. During his active years he was a brilliant and successful physician and surgeon.

Dr. Bonta's funeral was held at The Little Church of the Flowers, at Los Angeles, conducted by the rector of St. James Episcopal church, of which he was a member and an usher. He was buried in the cemetery of the church.

ROARK

The funeral of Mr. Herod Roark was held Monday afternoon in Lexington. Mr. Roark took suddenly ill and died Saturday morning at his home on Herrington Lake. Mr. Roark was well known, and was liked by all who knew him. Besides his wife, Mrs. Mildred Roark, he is survived by a son, Herod Roark, Jr., a daughter, Mrs. Frances Gains, of Versailles, Ky.

TATUM

Mrs. Leslie Tatum, 38 years old, died Saturday, January 4, 1936, at her home on the Warwick road after only five days illness with pneumonia. Before her marriage she was Miss Ethel Brown, a daughter of Sam and Lullie Brown, of Mercer county, and about eighteen years ago she was united to Leslie Tatum, who survives with two children, Leroy, 13 years old, and Ruby, eight years old. She also leaves her parents, and one brother, Frank Brown, all of this place.

The funeral was at the residence on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with burial in Spring Hill cemetery. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. R. Tomlin, of the Methodist church, which faith she professed more than 20 years ago. The pall bearers were Arthur Marksburg, Cleveland Threlkeld, William Carr, Louis McFatridge, Albert Mullins, and Marion Sanders.

LILLARD

The following is from the Cincinnati Times-Star of Dec. 23, 1935: Funeral services for Robert W. Lillard, 80, retired, former State representative, employed at one time in the internal revenue department, and printer and proofreader on the Times-Star, Post and the Enquirer, will be held in the W. Mack Johnson funeral home, Walnut Hills, Tuesday, Dec. 24, 1935 at 10:30 a. m. He died in his home, 6229 Savannah avenue, College Hill, Saturday night.

Lillard was born in Harrodsburg, Ky., but came to Cincinnati when a youth. He was with the Enquirer from 1876 to 1892. He was a member of the Ohio State Legislature in 1894. Later, he became the first superintendent of the present City Hall, serving for twelve years. He was collector of internal revenue for twelve years and later was a proofreader on the Times-Star and then on the Post. At one time he was president of Typographical Union No. 3. He retired four years ago. He was a member of Miami Lodge No. 46, F. and A. M., and of Willis Chapter No. 131, R. A. M. He also was a member of the Elks Lodge.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Carrie Davis Lillard; a son, Dr. Davis Lillard, and three granddaughters.

CORNISH

G. W. Cornish, 55 years old, died at his home near Dugansville Jan. 6, 1936 after an illness of only four days. He suffered a stroke of paralysis the day of his death. His passing was a great shock to the community where he lived, as it was not realized that his condition was so serious. Mr. Cornish was a member of Bethel Baptist church and a regular attendant as long as he was able. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Mathie Holt Cornish; two sons, Edgar and Worrie Cornish; two daughters, Mrs. Everett Grider and Miss Madie Cornish, also two brothers, Levi Cornish, Fox Creek; Henry Cornish, of Bardonia, and two sisters, Mrs. B. F. Hasty, Anderson county and Mrs. Bert Taylor, Williamsburg. Four grandchildren also survive. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornish, died several years ago. His funeral was on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, Rev. Ralph White and Rev. Thomas Shelton, conducted the services. Burial was in the Darnell cemetery.

TOMLINSON

The burial of William Tomlinson, a former resident of Harrodsburg, was at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning in the family lot in Spring Hill cemetery. The rites were by Dr. John W. Carpenter, of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Tomlinson, 78 years old, died January 6, 1936, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. B. Stolp, at Kenilworth, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. He was the son of Dr. William Tomlinson, prominently identified with former days in Harrodsburg. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Stolp, who accompanied the remains here with her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Heath, of Wilmetta, Ill. During their stay in Harrodsburg they were at Beaumont Inn.

To Buy or Sell Real Estate Use Want Ads

Why? Because you will get more response per individual cost and more sales per individual sales cost than through any other form of selling known to the present real estate world. Any man or woman who takes the trouble to investigate your real estate ad in the want ad columns — and hundreds of them will — is a man or woman who is open and ready for business... desirous of knowing more about your particular offer. Prospects brought by want ads are prospects half sold.
