Rye condition April 1 was 77 per cent of normal compared to 91 per cent a year ago and the April 1 ten-year average of 80 per cent. #### BOYS DESCRIBED AS BEING 'LAZIEST OF ALL ANIMALS'

Boys, said Dr. Roscoe Gilmore Stott, Cincinnati writer, humorist and educator tonight "are natively the laziest of all animals."

Speaking at the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers in Louisville, Dr. Stott gave this description of an American boy.
"He is philosophic. He has no hero-worship in him, not unless it is drilled into him. He's democratic.
He is natively the laziest of all animals. There is no gush or pose in him. He wants old-fashioned friendship. Boys love to talk to grown-ups."

DERBY LANDLORDS EXPECTING $70,000

A rental profit of $70,000 is anticipated for Louisville householders during the stay of Derby visitors, according to J. Dale McPherson, director of the housing bureau department of the Derby Festival Association.

Over $45,000 worth of business was directed into the hands of Louisville people last year, McPherson announced.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE IS 7

Yesterday was the seventh birthday of Shirley Temple, Hollywood's child screen star whose fame has spread to practically all corners of the earth. She was born April 23, 1929.

PIONEER PARK NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

Oh! Winter! Winter! Winter!
You are a shameless thing!
To thus cavort and linger
In the lap of Spring.

Our first visitors on last Sunday morning were a party of students from an Indiana College who came to the Park in one of the large touring busses. This was followed by various parties from different parts of the country, until at closing time we had shown through the Fort and Mansion one of the largest crowds we have thus had this year. The people find the Park an enjoyable and interesting spot to visit and to bring their friends.

Mr. M. B. Hollifield, of Mayfield, Ky., now in Frankfort as assistant Attorney General, was a visitor at the Park along with some friends.

Miss Anny Rutz, of Oberammagau, Bavaria, visited the Park with a party of friends on Sunday. Miss Rutz, for the years of 1930 and 1934, impersonated the character of the Virgin Mary in the Passion Play given each year in the Bavarian mountains at the quaint little village of Oberammagau. Her sweet, pure face indicated that she was well fitted for the role she assumed. The next presentation of The Passion Play will be in 1940.

Miss Rutz has been the recipient of a number of social entertainments since she has been in this country, and when here was given a luncheon at Beaumont Inn, by a member of her party.

The Curator treasures among his priceless memories, the day he spent with his two companions, the late F.
D. Spotswood and W. W. Stephenson, when they saw the famous spectacle, given in an open air performance high up amid the majestic mountains of the Alps when the three were abroad some years ago. The sublime setting was only such as Nature in her most generous moods can give.

If any of our readers have a man's old saddle, a leather jerkin, a con-skin cap, or some cured skin or a hunting garb belonging to the pioneer period, a powder horn, etc., the Curator would be glad to have them given to old Fort Harrod to furnish a room now being prepared in one of the blockhouses.

Pupils of the Lincoln high school, colored, of Stanford, were visitors of the Park on Monday. There were some 30 or more pupils, and they were an orderly, interested lot of young people.

A group of British explorers are preparing to climb Mt. Everest, which might be taken to mean their efforts will not be needed in the Italian Alps.

A LITTLE SPRING POEM

I ask but little here below
A little car, a radio, A little cash to spend at will
A little house upon a hill A little land to till at ease, Or leave untill, just as I please,
A little brook where fishes lurk And very, very little work.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WHY POOR ARE BLESSED

Blessed are the poor, for they won't have to be investigated by the Congress of the United States. All they have to put up with is the call of the home visitor from the relief office.

MAMMOTH CAVE HAS NEW TRAIL

The longest cave trail in the world, connecting the old Mammoth Cave with the new Frozen Niagara section, has been constructed by the CCC Camp No. 1, one of the four CCC camps located in the Mammoth Cave National Park area.
Other projects completed by the CCC boys in this area are coffin graves; roads and hiker's trails; erosion control work; clearing forests of fire hazards, and general improvement of the park area.
