

FAMOUS RICE BROS. CIRCUS IS COMING SOON

The famous Rice Bros. Circus, organized by Dan Rice in 1852, will exhibit in Harrodsburg One Day Only, Thursday, April 30th, and throughout this section plans are perfecting for the attendance of every man, woman and child—so it seems—at one of the performances.

Everybody wishes to see the Rice Bros. Circus this year. Three rings and stages and the hippodrome track, to say nothing of the vast maze of the earth's foremost arena talent—two hundred acknowledged kings and queens of daring, grace, skill, and incredible agility. Scores of clowns will project ten times that number of mirth waves. Countless new foreign features and innovations new to America are introduced on the gigantic program. Allen King's gigantic trained animal exhibition will be presented in the main performance.

Throughout circus days the three gigantic tented stables of the Rice Bros. organization will be open to the public free of charge. Here lovers of fine horses may view at random many of the world's most beautiful thoroughbreds. Perfect specimens of almost every known strain will be found in the big shows great free horse fair which also includes congress of tiny Shetland ponies to delight the little folks.

One of the largest, finest and costliest street parades will be seen at noon. Many horses, two herds of elephants, and two caravans of camels from the great desert will be seen. In the picturesque line of march will be more than three score elaborately carved and gilded allegorical floats, tableau wagons and open dens and cages displaying the Allen King menagerie. Doors to the big show and the menagerie will open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show starts at 2 and 8 p. m.

Prominent Landmark in Cairo
One of the landmarks of Cairo, Egypt, is the Mohammed Ali mosque which surmounts the citadel. The citadel was built in 1176, chiefly of stones taken from the smaller pyramids of Gizeh. The mosque was started in 1824 by Mohammed Ali, great grandfather of King Fuad of Egypt, and completed about 20 years later. Its slender minarets and graceful design form one of the most beautiful works of Arabian art extant.

Ignorance of Monarchs

Ignorance of monarchs furnishes some of the bright spots in history, says Raymond Forer, Trenton, N. J., in Collier's Weekly. In 1855, Czar Nicholas I of Russia, smarting under a heavy defeat by the British army in the Crimean war, issued a decree that all state papers thereafter were to be prepared in the Russian and American languages—no longer in Russian and English.

Tints Name Crater

Sunset crater, which gives its name to a national monument in Arizona, is so called because no matter what the angle of light, it always presents the colors of the setting sun. Dark at the base, it grows rose red, fading in turn to yellow at the crater.

The "Almighty Dollar"

The earliest use of the phrase "almighty dollar," in literature is believed to be by Washington Irving in "Wolfert's Roost, a Creole Village," in 1837. The idea, however, is older than this.

Forced to Listen

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "objects to gossip and den comes home mostly to hear of neighborhood news at the supper table."

NEW YORK . . . Bernard M. Boissiere (above), a French Boy Scout from Paris, is here the guest of a New York Boy Scout Club which sent one of its members visiting France last year.

An Old Belief

If you spill salt, you can prevent bad luck by throwing some over your left shoulder.

Diseases in India

In India there are at least 20 distinct tongues, each of which is spoken by at least 100,000 people, and there are more than 200 vernaculars.

By Elephants

Elephant ornaments were made by elephants.

No Race of Giants
There is no existing race of people sufficiently tall to be termed giants. The highest stature of a race is 71.02 inches for males of the Sara tribe of the Upper Nile region in North Africa.

Bird Illness
Birds are more susceptible to contagious diseases than mammals.
