

Pvt. W. Yeast Of Mercer Listed With Army Dead

Private Williard R. Yeast, son of John Yeast of Route 3, Harrodsburg, is reported to have died with the United States Army on duty in the Pacific area according to today's casualty list of the department.

Private Yeast was a member of the National Guard from Mercer company, missing after the fall of Bataan and presumably taken prisoner by the Japanese. Since Army personnel is being freed from Japanese camps by the Americans, Private Yeast's death has been ascertained & notification made to the next of kin.
