

Executions set out in Deft's Answer.
This rule was 7th Nov 1810. Said Comptroler did not redeem said land within twelve months, and as the time of redemption had expired the said Hamilton was entitled to foreman under his purchase, and he did after the 7th Nov 1811 grant the possession of said land, and held it from the 1st Jan'y 1812, to the fall of 1818, the death of said Hamilton. Since then said place has not been in the possession of ~~either~~ this Adam in any way whatever. Said Hamilton in 1812, 304 acres said land to W^m James; in 1815 & 16 to J. C. Button and had in his possession for 1817 & part of 1818, he denies that said Hamilton took the possession of said land from Deft in Nov 1810 or at any other time. He denies that he procured the tenant of Deft to attain said land & him. Deft as he charges not having redeemed said land did not claim it, & said Hamilton suffering said land to be his rented it out to James as aforesaid. He denies that said Hamilton received any rents for said place in 1811 for he did not have it in possession that year. He denies that for each succeeding year he received as rent as otherwise as
