

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Ben Saunders,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Affidavit.

Will Harmon,

Defendant.

The plaintiff Ben Sanders says that the horse claimed by him in this action is a brown horse about fifteen hands high and about 5 years old; He says that about the first of January, 1916, he entered into a contract with the defendant whereby this affiant was to take said horse, feed and care for him and retain the possession and ownership and control of said horse until the Fall of 1916 and that during said time he was to have the possession, ownership and control of said horse and that he is entitled to the immediate possession of said horse and that he is now wrongfully detained by the defendant and that he ought to recover the sum of $15 damages for the retention of him; he says that said horse was not taken for a tax or fine imposed against the plaintiff or under any order or judgment of court against him, nor seized under an execution, distress warrant or attachment against his property and that the plaintiff's cause of action herein has accrued within one year prior to this date.
