

J M. Brathwa
John Pulten

1912 March 4
filed
H. H. Spinks

and that it ought to be free from rates.

road ought to be established for the convenience of the public.

no charge will result to the above lands owners; we think that the from both, and D. Brewer. We further report that as it is already fenced, and between the lands of Thompson Cloyd, J. M. Prather, Rankin Clements, the State Pike to the Old Rynestown Mill; that it runs over the lands distance of about one mile to the county that road leading from Providence Pike, near Thompson Cloyd's residence and runs North.

or obstructions of any kind on same; that it begins at a point on the

of way, and that it is already a fenced lane, without any gates be opened in this case, report that we have viewed the proposed right we two undersigned, Commissioners appointed to view the road report to Report of Commissioners.

Upon Petition.

J. M. Prather & Co.

Monroe County Court.