

of said land by Smith & kept Cornfield was void, he further admits & avers that the sale of said land under the said executions was void, and it as well as the sale to kept by said Smith have in this case been declared void, and have been set aside. This being so he avers that in this case, the said land has been adjudged to be the land of said Smith, and he avers that said land was & is the land of said Smith, and he further avers that for the use & occupation of said land & rents thereof while Peff in testate had the same in premises belongs to said Smith, and any liability that either Peff as Admin or his estate may be under is to said Smith, and not to Peff. Now Peff avers that for value received he bought & paid said Smith for the note of $76.28 &c filed with Peffs original petition & against kept Cornfield that by the judgement herein said note is adjudged Cancelled & being the consideration in fact for said land in the verbal sale between said Smith & kept Cornfield; that this purchase from Smith occurred before said Hamellm got possession of said land, Now Peff avers
