GENTLEMEN OF THE JURY:

FIRST-

You are instructed to find for the plaintiff in this case not exceeding $40.00, unless you believe from the evidence that the plaintiff and defendant had a contract by which plaintiff was to keep defendant's horse as a part consideration for raising a tobacco crop and working for him when not in said crop.

SECOND-

You will find for the defendant on his counterclaim such sum as will reasonably compensate him for the use of his horse by plaintiff at the price of 50 cts. per day, said sum not to exceed the sum of $100.00.

THIRD-

You will take the difference between said sums and find said excess if any between said sums in favor of the party entitled thereto.

VERDICT-

We, the jury, find Nothing under the first instruction.

We, the jury, find ----- under the second instruction.

We, the jury, find ----- under the third instruction.

The jury find for the defendant in the sum of Ten.. Dollars 8/10<sup>00</sup>
