

CALLED TERM 1914

Nov. 1914. Mercer County Court

Judge D. Lee Currey Presiding

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the Statutes heretofore furnished the County Judge, County Clerk, County Attorney and Sheriff are old and not fit for use; it is therefore ordered by the Court that the Clerk procure four copies of Carroll's Statutes for said officers of the County and certify cost of same to the Auditor of public accounts for payment, as provided in chapter 77, section 2432 of the Kentucky Statutes.

A copy attest:
