

State of Kentucky
Mercer County, Oct:

The affiant, J. T. Johnson, states that Bayless Leathers, on ^{Monday} Tuesday, the 23rd of August, 1920, threatened by his conduct to commit an offense ^{against} the person of this affiant, in this: that on said date during a conversation between them said Leathers became angry and grabbed a piece of a tobacco stick and started towards affiant in a threatening manner when he was restrained by his wife.

J. T. Johnson

Subscribed to by J. T. Johnson this 26th day of August, 1920.

Jesse M. Johnson