

DEATHS

MAGOFFIN
(Unavoidably delayed from last issue).

Mrs. Lucy Thompson Magoffin, 86 years old, died at her home in McAlester, Oklahoma, Tuesday, March 3, 1936, and her remains were brought to Harrodsburg, her native city, for burial. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, her father being a large land owner and a breeder of fine horses. She attended school at the old Danville Seminary and also at Daughters College, at Harrodsburg. In 1869 she was married to Beriah Magoffin, a son of Gov. Beriah Magoffin, of Harrodsburg, who was the Chief Executive of Kentucky at the time of the War Between the States. Shortly after their marriage they went West, residing for a number of years in the Dakotas and in Minnesota and later moving to McAlester, Oklahoma, in 1911.

Mr. Magoffin, who served with Morgan's Cavalry through the War Between the States, died about three and a half years ago. The many years that Mr. and Mrs. Magoffin spent together were a devoted and beautiful union. Both descendants of notable pioneer ancestry in Harrodsburg, both reared in culture and refinement and carrying with them through life the marks of gentle breeding, they were much loved and esteemed. Mrs. Magoffin devoted her entire life to her family and friends and her music. She was an active member of the Presbyterian church and gave much time to work in the cause of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. After Mr. Magoffin retired from active business they spent many summers in Harrodsburg renewing old times. Both were much loved here.

Mrs. Magoffin reared a family of four sons and four daughters, of whom three sons and two daughters survive her. They are Beriah Magoffin, Deerwood, Minn.; Beck Magoffin, Spokane, Washington; Eben Magoffin, McAlester, Oklahoma; Mrs. Virginia M. Hugo, Duluth, Minn., and Miss Angelia Magoffin, McAlester. She also leaves seventeen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

After the funeral services in McAlester she was brought to Harrodsburg for burial in the Gov. Magoffin lot in Spring Hill cemetery to rest beside her husband. The service here was at the Bruner & Sims Chapel, conducted by Dr. John W. Carpenter, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, of the Christian church.

Among those from out-of-town attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eben Magoffin, McAlester; Mrs. William H. Austin, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shackelford, Frankfort; Mrs. J. T. Hugely and Mr. Chenuit Hugely, of Danville.

POWELL

Anse' Powell, 35 years old, a former resident of Harrodsburg, was killed Wednesday at Alton, Ill., according to news received by relatives here. He was foreman of the Government Mississippi river dam project and was killed when a 1,400 pound sheet metal piling broke loose from a crane and fell on him. Mr. Powell was for some time ticket agent for the Southern Railway in Harrodsburg under the station agent, the late J. C. Hocker. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Brewer Powell, of Danville, formerly of this place, and a son, 8, brother, James Powell, Florida; two half-brothers, R. B. and W. T. Ross, Harrodsburg; two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Rial, Lexington, and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Louisville.

Funeral services were conducted at the grave in Spring Hill cemetery, Harrodsburg, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. G. Whitcomb Ellers, pastor of the Harrodsburg Baptist church. Members of the American Legion stood at attention during the service which was closed by the firing of three volleys over the grave as a military tribute.

NOEL

Clell Noel, 39 years old, died at his home at High Bridge Saturday, March 14, 1936, following an illness of several months. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Noel; five daughters, two brothers, John and Campbell Noel, and three sisters, Mrs. Stella Horn, Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Tom Woods, all of High Bridge.

The funeral services were on Monday afternoon at the High Bridge church and burial following in the Shawnee Run cemetery.

ALLIN

A wire received by members of the family Sunday conveyed the news of the death of Grant Jouett Allin, 69 years old, of Copperas Cove, Texas, whose funeral was conducted Monday at that place. No further information was given. Mr. Allin was the oldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bush W. Allin, Sr., of Harrodsburg.

Taking up railroad telegraphy as a youth, he accepted a position at Copperas Cove when he was 15 years of age, and became one of the foremost citizens of that place. He was a large ranch owner and was prominent in Masonic circles. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Barker Allin, no children, but seven brothers and four sisters: Jim Allin, Coral Gables, Florida; Judge Ben Casey Allin, Bush W. Allin, Jack Allin, Tom Allin, all of Harrodsburg; Ed Allin, Lexington; Poteet Allin, of California; Mrs. Jennie Allin Osborne, Versailles; Mrs. Fred Karl, Mt. Vernon, O.; Mrs. Kelly Perkins, Mrs. Abe Sharp, of Harrodsburg.

PATTERSON

John Patterson, 80, died at his home at Dixville at 8:40 o'clock Friday night, March 13, 1936. The son of Armisted and Mary Patterson, he was born and reared in Mercer county. He was a member of the Benton Baptist church. He had been in de-

Startling Savings in a SPECTACULAR SPRING SALE

$2.50 - $3.00
Stetson Hats $5.00

See the Seagull

Bound Edge Hats

An outstanding number for Spring. We feature this hat by Paragon in the New Snap Down Model. All the latest shades.

SPRING TIES

Luxurious silk foulard in stripes, dots, checks and other nifty patterns. We suggest you select them in half dozen lots at this low price.

65c-50c

Gotham Goldstripe HOSIERY

British tan and saddle brown are very new. Sheer and ringless Chiffon. $1.00 quality

79c

New Interwovens

50c values. 3 pair for

$1.00

The Greatest Style array we've ever presented.

The new "Duke of Kent Drape" modeled into a sport type is the last word for spring. First with the new and foremost in value. That is our aim.

A Great Showing at

$18.50
$21.95

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

$28.50
$31.50

OUR WEEKLY SPECIALS WILL SAVE YOU MONEY. WATCH FOR THEM

Here's Your Saving

Regular 25c quality of men's trunks, vat dyed and elastic back. All sizes.

Per pair 15c

A Good All Leather Work Glove

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY.

23c

Phillips & Phillips

"Where Most Men Trade"

SALE OPENS FRIDAY, MARCH 20TH

clining health for two or three years.

Funeral services were conducted at Benton Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. T. Best, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Curi, pastor of the Benton church, and by the Rev. J. T. Turpin, pastor of the Deep Creek Baptist church. Pall bearers were Horace, Edwin, and Marvin Patterson, William Bonta, W. S. Bailey, and Arpil Hatchell. Burial followed in Patterson cemetery.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Patterson; four sons, Joseph, Clarence, and William Patterson, of Dixville, and George Patterson, Harrodsburg; two sisters, Mrs. William Devine and Mrs. Elizabeth Devine, Dixville; seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

TAYLOR

Miss Jennie Taylor, 74 years old, of Russell Springs, Ky., died at 2:15 Tuesday morning at the A. D. Price Hospital, where she had been under treatment for some time. She came to Harrodsburg about a year ago to enter the hospital under the care of Dr. D. H. Coleman, and improved sufficiently to be moved to an apartment with her friend, Mrs. Webb, in the building of Mrs. Joe V. VanArdall. About three months ago she re-entered the hospital. Mrs. Webb accompanied the body back to Russell Springs Tuesday where funeral arrangements were made after arrival.

Miss Taylor was the daughter of Capt. Henry Taylor, a veteran of the War Between the States, and Katherine Warren Taylor. She was a member of the Christian church and during her active years was prominent in D. A. R. and Eastern Star orders. She taught school for a number of years, and then entered the Government service from which she was retired at the age limit. She leaves no immediate family, her nearest survivors being cousins.

JACKSON

Mrs. Nancy Robb Jackson, 47, wife of William E. Jackson, Jr., of the Lexington-Harrodsburg pike in Jessamine county, died at St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington, at 10 o'clock Friday night, March 13, 1936, after a brief illness. She was born in Jessamine county, a daughter of Joseph C. and Margaret Means Robb.

Funeral services were held at the residence Sunday morning at 10:30, the Rev. J. Howard Baxter officiating. Interment followed in the Lexington cemetery.

Mrs. Jackson was well known here, having lived here with her husband after their marriage. Mr. Jackson was reared here.

Survivors include her husband, three children, Misses Nancy Ann, Susan E., and Billy Frances Jackson; her father, a sister, two brothers, two aunts and an uncle.

LANNUM

William Davis Lannum, 42 years old, died of cerebral hemorrhage at his home in Lebanon, Sunday, March 8, 1936, according to news received by his relative, Clarence Hill, and other kinspeople of this place. He was the son of R. N. and Nettie Wilson Lannum and was an employee of the Kentucky Utilities Company, and also engaged in farming. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Virgie Hill Lannum, two sons, Robert and William Lannum, Jr., a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Garman, and a brother, Coleman Lannum. Funeral was at Bethelence Baptist church in Washington county by Dr. T. J. Porter, pastor of the Baptist church at Lebanon. Burial was in Bethelence cemetery.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Patterson; four sons, Joseph, Clarence, and William Patterson, of Dixville, and George Patterson, Harrodsburg; two sisters, Mrs. William Devine and Mrs. Elizabeth Devine, Dixville; seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

TEATER

Mrs. Beulah Sims Teater died suddenly at her home on the Burgo road at the Harrodsburg city limits Monday, March 16, at 6 p.m. from an attack of acute indigestion that caused a heart attack.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Harrodsburg Christian church, the Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, pastor, officiating. Burial at Bohon.

Survivors include her husband, Gilmore Teater, and three children, Samuel, Cohen and Irmel, of Harrodsburg, and her mother, Mrs. S. J. Sims, of Cornishville. She also leaves a brother and three sisters, Flins Sims, Mrs. James Shewmaker, Mrs. Berneice Ransdell and Mrs. Fred Jackson.

PRICE

Mrs. Rhetta Linney Price passed away at her home in Mitchellsburg, Ky., Thursday, March 12th, 1936, after a brief illness of pneumonia. She was the daughter of John and Lucy Pate Linney and was born in Richmond, Va. March 6th, 1899. She moved to Boyle county in childhood and was married in November, 1884 to Mr. J. L. Price. Mrs. Price was a lovable Christian character and held in high esteem in her community as was shown by the number attending the funeral and the floral offerings. She had been a member of the Perryville Christian church for many years and was ever a loyal and regular attendant. Her Sunday School class attended in a body. She is survived by her husband, Mr. J. L. Price, one daughter, Mrs. C. J. Wren, and a granddaughter, Miss Catherine Wren, of Chattanooga, and the following brothers and sisters: Mr. John Linney, of Stover, Mo.; Mrs. Virgie Price of Princeton, Kansas; Mrs. Lula Averett and Mrs. Bettie Carter, of Louisville; Mr. Frank Linney, of Danville; Mrs. Reba Burke, Mrs. Katie Cook and Mr. Albert Linney, of Lexington; Mr. Alexander Linney, of Chicago; Mr. William Linney, Mr. Phil Linney, Mr. Henry Linney, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Ella Votel, Bellevue, Ky.; Mrs. Georgia Buchanan, Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Edna Gray, Los Angeles, Calif.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at 10:30 at the Perryville Christian church, conducted by Rev. G. W. Mills, Rev. D. E. Nickerson and Rev. L. M. Omer. Interment in Perryville cemetery. The pallbearers were J. L. Preston, John Bruce, Jordan Mayes, George Watts, George Linney and M. Robinson.

CURRENS

Mrs. Louella Currens, 75 years old, died at her home near Salvisa, in the north section of Mercer county, Tuesday, March 17, 1936, and her funeral was conducted at the residence at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rev. F. T. Howard, pastor of the Salvisa Methodist church. Burial at Providence cemetery, near McAfee.

Mrs. Currens was the daughter of William Currens and Martha Jane Smithy Currens, and the wife of Ben C. Currens, who survives with three children: William T. Currens, Mrs. Will Robinson, Mrs. Roy Robinson, all of Salvisa. She also leaves a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Leonard Currens, whose husband died last year, and several children also survive. Mrs. Currens had been in failing health for several years, and in a serious condition for the last two months.

YEAGER

Mr. John Yeager, 82 years old, died March 15, 1936, after a few days illness from a paralytic stroke. At the time of his death he and his wife were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Luster Satterly and Mr. Satterly at Fisherville. He was brought back to his home at Kirkland Sunday night. He was the oldest member of Antioch Christian church and was a faithful member until the end. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Sarah Colvin Yeager, and three sons, William Yeager and Archie Yeager, of Kirkland; Edgar Yeager, of Dugansville; and six daughters, Mrs. Luster Satterly, and Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Fisherville; Mrs. Daily Sea, and Mrs. Ethel Drury, of Anderson county; Mrs. Callie Barnett, of Seaville; Mrs. James Cornish, of Washington county. He is also survived by 47 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ezra Sparrow at Antioch Christian church Tuesday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the cemetery there.

Six of his grandsons were pallbearers: Millard Sea, Rupert Yeager, Evert Yeager, Homer Barnett, Leon Robinson, Leon Drury.

McGINNIS

William McGinnis, 66, died at his home in High Bridge Tuesday, March 17, 1936, after a long illness. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pearl Lee McGinnis; two daughters, Mrs. Willard Barr, Lexington, and Mrs. Sam Beard, High Bridge; two brothers, Jack McGinnis, Lexington, and John McGinnis, Harrodsburg; two sisters, Mrs. Lige Simpson, Lexington, and Mrs. Josh Baker, High Bridge. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Union church at High Bridge, conducted by Sister Stroud, interment at Providence cemetery, Mercer county.

CROUCH

Mr. James Crouch, 16 years old, died at his home near Sharpville Sunday, March 15, 1936, after an illness of flu and pneumonia. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crouch. He was a member of Freedom Baptist church. He leaves his father and mother, four sisters, one who resides in Detroit; Mrs. Rebecca Bowen, of Lawrenceburg; Mrs. Stella Robinson, of Lexington; Mrs. William Coover, of Mayo, and one brother, William Crouch, at home. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. G. Shelton, at Freedom church Tuesday afternoon and burial was in Willisburg cemetery.

TERHUNE

The burial of Lee J. Terhune, former resident of Harrodsburg, will be at 11 o'clock Saturday at the cemetery in Nicholasville beside his wife, Mrs. Jessie Woodward Terhune, who died November 23, 1935. Mr. Terhune died March 18, 1936.

following an emergency operation for appendicitis. He was 73 years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Terhune, of Mercer county. He moved to Ohio with his family a number of years ago where he was a highly esteemed citizen. A daughter, Mrs. Binkley Listle, of Brooksville, and three sons, survive, James Terhune, Harrodsburg; Jones Terhune, Dayton; Charles Terhune, Indianapolis.

The following brothers and sisters also survive: Bowman Terhune, Mrs. Clara VanFleet; Mrs. Harry Terhune, Sr., Harrodsburg; Charles Terhune, Charleston, West Va., all of whom will go to Nicholasville to the burial, and a large number of relatives will also attend.

Eugene C. Jocelyn died at his home in Long Beach, California, Wednesday, March 18, 1936, according to information received here by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Nannie B. Woods, South College street. Mr. Jocelyn is survived by his wife who was Miss Mattie McAfee, of Harrodsburg, a daughter, Mrs. Jack Clark and a granddaughter. Mr. Jocelyn was well known here where he frequently visited his wife's relatives.

CHERRY
Mrs. Hugh Cherry, mother of Mrs. J. K. Powell and Mr. Ralph Cherry, of Harrodsburg, died Saturday about noon at her home in Harriman, Tenn. She had been ill for some weeks and Mrs. Powell had been summoned to her a few days before the end. The funeral was at Harriman Monday. Mrs. Cherry is survived by her husband and five children, Mrs. Powell, Ralph, Edgar, William and Robert Cherry.

Mr. Powell returned from Tennessee after the funeral. Mrs. Powell and Mr. Ralph Cherry are expected home the latter part of the week.

STEPINS FOR COWS
Now they are making canvas bloomers, or stepins for cows. This is no joke. The Department of Agriculture is after the Brown Dog Tick, said to bring disease to cattle. These cow stepins have elastic to keep them fitting snug and elastic suspenders to hold them up.

The Whole County's Talking—?

Call and pay your subscription to The Herald.