HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS AWARDED TONIGHT

Programs Attending 1936 Finals End With Commencement Exercises 8 P. M.

Commencement exercises tonight will close the brilliant series of events marking the 1936 finals of the Harrodsburg high school, when the 53 seniors will receive their diplomas.

Dr. Raymond Kent, president of the University of Louisville, is to make the commencement address on the subject: "The Future From the Mirror of the Past." Dr. Kent's ability as a speaker and educator goes far beyond his own state. What he has to say is always worthwhile and his coming to Harrodsburg is an honor to the school and the city. Superintendent W. W. Ensminger is to be congratulated for securing the outstanding speakers he has brought here for the school programs. Not many high schools can boast of men of such prominence and mental gifts.

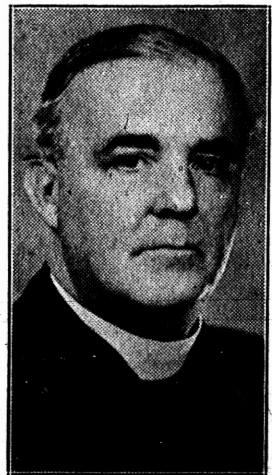

After the processional, tonight's program will open with the invocation by Rev. G. R. Tomlin, pastor of the Harrodsburg Baptist church, and close with the benediction given by Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, of the Christian church. Several soloists will add to the musical features. Mrs. Charles N. Riker will render "The Song of the Soul," Mrs. Erroll Draffen is to give "Carmena Waltz," and Mrs. Gore Moberley "Kashmiri Song." All are gifted singers and their voices are beautiful additions to any program. Mrs. J. Hal Grimes will play the marches and accompaniments.

Principal J. H. Parker, of the high school, will award the diplomas and the honors. He has had this distinction for seven years, and now turns it over to his successor as he has been elected superintendent of the school at Lebanon, and passes from Harrodsburg to an advanced position in his profession as a teacher.

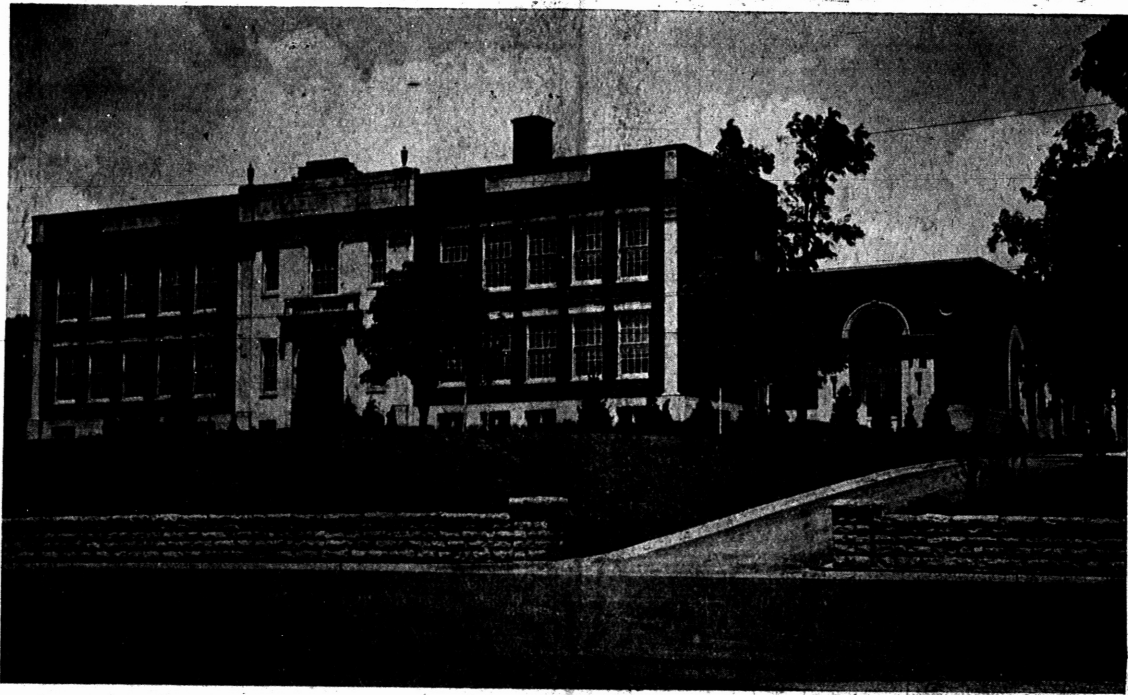

Coveted Prizes

Several coveted prizes which the seniors always look forward to with eagerness, will be announced tonight. Mrs. William F. Dennis, of Harrodsburg and Washington, D. C., has again awarded $25 in cash prizes to each boy and girl in the senior class having the highest general average for scholarship during the four years course.

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club, of which Mrs. G. A. Curry is chairman, also offers again this year the

RT. REV. H. P. ALMON ABBOTT award of $5 to the

WINGED SHIP OF MINE

By Aimee Hines

Down around the quay they lie, Senior ships that sail to sea
On shore those happy people wait and play their time that's free
But soon their ships will sail away with winds that never tire
And there's one that will be sailing to the Port of Heart's Desire.
To the Port of Heart's Desire, and it's, oh, that port for me,
H. H. S. we love best of all those ships that sail the sea;
Its hold is filled with memories, its prow it points away,
To the Port of Heart's Desire, where we stayed awhile at play.
Ships that sailed for gold there be, and ships that sailed for fame,
And some were filled with jewels bright when into port they came.
But give me still yon white sail in the sunset's mystic fire
That the running tides will carry to the Port of Heart's Desire.
Oh speed yon white winged ship of mine, oh speed you to the sea
Some other day, some other tide, come back again for me.
Come back with all the memories, the joys, and e'en the pain
And take me on the sparkling waves of High School once again.

boy or girl in the graduating class making the highest grade in written English during their senior year.
