Paley* Said, "Let There Be Soap Operas"

and there WERE!!

Soap operas originated during the days of radio, when families gathered for nighttime entertainment provided by Franklin D. Roosevelt's "Fireside Chats" and such radio comedies as "Amos & Andy" and "The Fibber McGee and Molly Show".

When television overtook radio as America's #1 entertainment medium in the early 1950's, many of the same soaps that were popular on radio continued their success on the tube.

One of the all-time favorite soaps revolved around the antics of a vampire. His name was Barnabas Collins, and the 1960's-1970's show was Dark Shadows.

DID YOU KNOW??

Large soap manufacturers sponsored the first radio dramas, thus spawning the term "soap operas".

One of the most popular soap operas today, Days of Our Lives, celebrated its 20th anniversary recently. It still contains 3 original cast members: Tom and Alie Horton along with their son Mickey, played by McDonald Carey, Frances Reid, and John Clark.

Current "heartthrob," Tom Selleck, was originally a member of Young & the Restless.

*William Paley was the President of CBS when soap operas began.

Fashion Fads in the "World" of HHS

Fashion keeps changing every year and 1984-1985 is no exception. The dressy clothes of a few years ago are out, and casual clothes are the "in" thing. Also, the mini has resurfaced and pants, too, are shorter. The students seem to enjoy and buy these new styles.

In the halls of Harrodsburg High School can be seen all the current fashion fads such as: mini-skirts, crop pants, crop tops, muscle shirts, sweaters, and palamino jeans. In addition, there are various styles of shoes such as: pumps, jellies, moccasins and flats.

THE FASHION CORNER

FADS AND FANCIES

They Work Hard for the Money

The students in the "world" of HHS work hard for their money. The students spend many long hours of hard work to earn the money they take home at the end of the week. HHS students work in a variety of stores such as: Kroger, Gateway, McDonalds, Golden Corral, Hops, and Hallmark. Some of the students enjoy their work; some do not, but they all agree that they need to work in order to earn money. One student commented that spending money he has earned gives him a good feeling.

Sharing the work load are Sean and Jon Sanders. To earn their money, they sack groceries at Gateway approximately 25 hours per week. Also working at Gateway are Shon Sebert, Bill Hatchett, Nelson Thompson, Chris Young, Chris Bentley, and Michael Whalen.

What a load! Chris Clark sacks groceries and assists customers to their cars at Kroger's in the Beaumont Plaza. Harrodsburg High School students who also work at Kroger's include Joseph Geraci, Kent Harley and Bobby Harris.

An order of fries, please! Sonya Gardner smiles happily while waiting on a customer at the drive-in window of McDonalds. The golden arches also employs Joy Powell, Dee Dee Dean, Linda Spahn, Mark Schneider, Kim Cruise, Lloyd Browning, and Donna Phillips from Harrodsburg High School.

Skating Party For HHS

The Harrodsburg High School Student Council sponsored a skating party at the Windjammer Skating Rink, in Danville, on April 18, 1985. It cost each Harrodsburg High School student just one dollar to get in, and the skate rental fee was free.

Many Harrodsburg High School students attended the skating party and supported the Student Council. Chaperone for the evening was Mrs. Jane Woellner, Harrodsburg High School Guidance Counselor and one of the Student Council sponsors. Accompanying Mrs. Woellner were her sons, Bret and Drew. Homecoming 1984

During the week of October 22-26, life was busy at HHS. Classes were working on their floats for the parade. The Homecoming Queen and Attendants were chosen by the student body. Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. at the football field there was a bonfire to build school spirit to beat the Berea Pirates. Friday, the Pep Club sponsored a "blue-white" day. And at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, the Queen Candidates, Homecoming Attendants, the Band, and the floats lined up for the parade.

Taking first place in the float competition are the Seniors. The theme of their float is "Pirate Busters" from the hit song and movie, "Ghost Busters".

"All the Right Moves" is the theme of the Junior float. Their hard work is rewarded by winning second place.

Sophomores with their float, "Hog Train", place third in the float competition.

While waiting for the parade, the floats were judged with the winners to be announced at the football game. Judges were Superintendent Forrest Williamson, Jr., Faye Neat, William Gravely, Jr. and Christine Foster. The route of the parade was through downtown Harrodsburg and finishing at the Court House for a successful pep rally. Homecoming week at HHS was full of excitement, activities, and fun.

Doing a really fine job, but coming in fourth, are the Freshmen. The theme of their float is "Torture".

With the roses in her hands and the crown on her head, Queen Jean Campbell gives a beautiful smile.

JEAN IS QUEEN

After high school, Jean plans to attend Georgetown College and major in Elementary Education. Jean was also voted "Best All Around" in the Senior Class and Miss H.H.S. of 1984.

Moving On Up a Little Higher

Thinking back in time when we were young,
Thinking that this day would never come.
Thinking that we would never,
We would never, ever grow old.
We're moving on up a little higher.
Yes, we're moving on up a little higher.

It seems very much like yesterday,
When we were working and striving
Each day to make a way.
But now the time has come,
You better get ready to run.
For we're moving on up a little higher.
Yes, we're moving on up a little higher.

I know that we've been through some hard times,
But we managed to stand on our own two feet
When the going kind of got tough.
Can't you see that we made it?
We made it through the rain.
We're moving on up a little higher.
Yes, we're moving on up a little higher.

Attending important practices and working very hard on technique, are some of the many ways Junior Chad Mayes prepares himself for the games.

LEADING THE SEARCH

Junior sponsors, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Montgomery, and Mr. McCloud devote a lot of time and energy advising the Class of '86 during one of the busiest years of their high school career. Besides advising and helping the class raise money for the Junior, Senior Prom, the Junior sponsors are very active in the classroom as well. Mrs. Jewell Montgomery, having attended Georgetown and Eastern University, teaches English 11 and typing. Having received degrees from Western University and Eastern University prepared Mrs. Phyllis Brown for teaching Algebra I, Geometry, and Math 9. Drafting, Woodworking and General Shop utilize all the training and education Mr. Robert McCloud received at Eastern University.

SOPHOMORE SPONSORS

Unaware of the camera, Miss Debbie Hooper explains how to do Algebra II problems.

Caught by our cameras, Coach Craddock explains the answer to his students.

While working with a sewing project, Mrs. Helton finds time to give us a smile.

Representing the Sophomore class as Mr. and Miss are Lee Sanders and Tara Harris. These two outstanding students were chosen by the Sophomore class as Mr. and Miss in 1984-1985.

Mr. and Miss

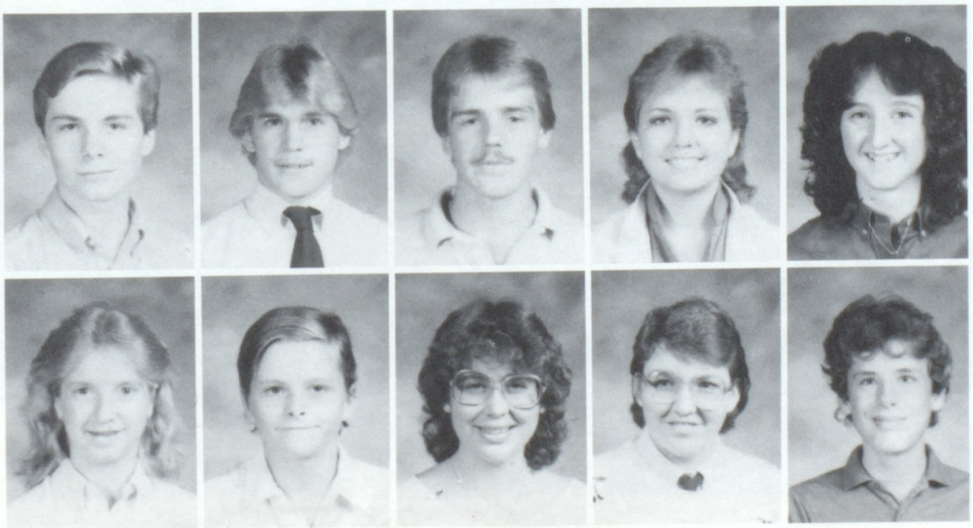

TARA AND LEE

Since the class of '87 put their trust in Lee and Tara to be Mr. and Miss, it would be nice to know a little about them.

Tara said she liked any and all types of sports, but her uppermost favorite would have to be basketball. Even though she did not play for the Lady Pioneers, she enjoyed watching the games. Tara is very interested in the arts and in her spare time she will sit down and try her hand at writing. But she also likes outdoor activities.

Like Tara, Lee enjoys basketball and baseball. Lee was active in both sports and he played an important part in each. When asked what his hobbies were, he responded, "Playing basketball, listening to his favorite music, watching television and most of all—being with his girlfriend."

These sophomores realize that working in Mrs. Brown's room is not as easy as they thought it would be.

What do Karen Long, Missy Wilham, Ricardo Meaux, Hadden Dean, Chris Young, and Chris Anderson have in common? They all have Coach Craddock for Civics.

Watching pep rallies is something to cheer about. Beth Barto proves this by joining in the cheers for HHS.

This group finds time to pose for the camera between classes. They are: Scott Hulette; junior Sean Sanders; Danny Vaughn; and Harold Wilhite.

FRESHMEN: YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Leading the class of '88 through their first year in high school are: Emily Campbell, president; Julie Wittwer, vice-president; Jamie Johnson, secretary; Shawn Meaux, treasurer; Chris Huff and Kirk Hembree, class representatives.

MR. AND MISS FRESHMAN

High school newcomers strive for popularity, in order to gain acceptance from the upperclassmen, as well as their peers. Alyssa Middleton and Troy McGinnis gained that acceptance and were selected as Mr. and Miss Freshman 1985. Alyssa gained her share of the award after spending half of the school year at Mercer. But, once she transferred to HHS, she brought with her the enthusiasm that enabled her to be a Scottie cheerleader, as well as a member of FCA and Student Council. In her free time, Alyssa is an avid gymnast and also enjoys drawing. Sports occupy a big part of Troy McGinnis' time. The Hogs will benefit from his skills for the next three years on the gridiron as this year's Mr. Freshman prowls the backfield. He also showed signs of future prowess as JV basketball player, as well as being one of the low scorers on Coach Don Pelly's fine group of young golfers.

Taking a break from class, Troy discusses an up-coming golf match with his classmates.

Smiles and her ever-present congeniality is one of the factors in Alyssa's election as Miss Freshman.

TAMING THE RESTLESS

Trying to tame the "Young and the Restless" are the following: Ms. Betty Dean, Mr.Y (alias Dale Yerian), Coach Higgins, and Mrs. Lee Russell.

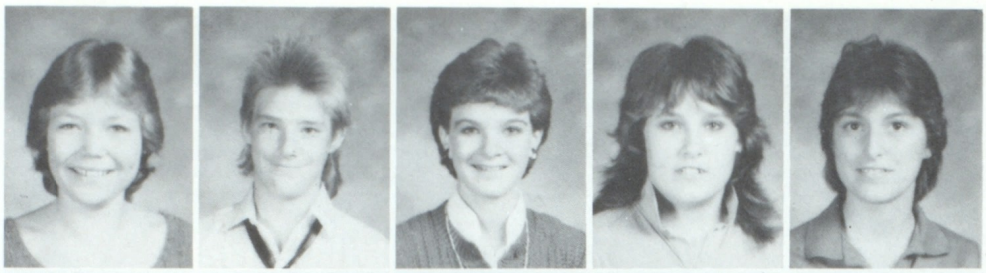

The class sponsors provided counseling and the help the freshmen needed in order to get through their first year of high school. The freshmen class was the biggest class in the high school for the academic year '84-'85. Fortunately, the freshmen had hard working sponsors to start them on their way.

For many years at Harrodsburg High School, there have always been three men whom students could look up to and admire . . . just like their own fathers. These men help, guide, and advise us just like our own fathers do.

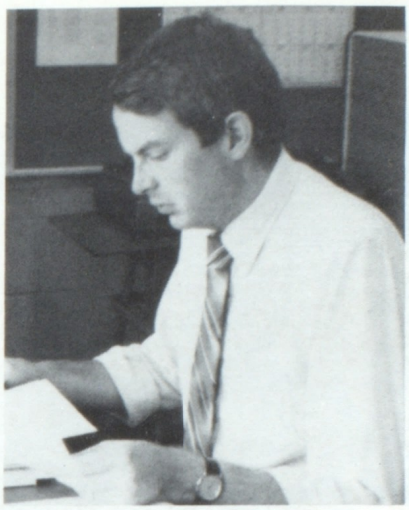

(above) Everyone wants to tell Santa what he wants for Christmas and Principal Delmer Warren is no exception. Wonder what he asked for? (right) Having two children of his own, Coach Johnson seems to have everything under control with the little baby in his arms.

Without these four women, Harrodsburg High School and the Harrodsburg Independent School System would be a total chaos of unfinished paper work, checkout slips, absences, and phone calls. These women run our school like our mothers manage our homes. We take them for granted, but greatly appreciate all of their work.

Taking phone calls, making checkout slips, and doing the dirty paper work is why Mrs. Clevenger is indispensable to Harrodsburg High.

ENGLISH

These English teachers have their work cut out for them when they walk into their classrooms. The subject of English is one that every student tries to avoid, although it is a very essential part of one's education. The selection of English classes range from Introduction to English and English 9 with Mrs. Clark, English 10 with Mrs. Russell, English 11 with Mrs. Montgomery to English 12 and Advanced English 12 with Mrs. Dean.

Foreign languages can also be trouble for students. But Betty Dean, who teaches French, and Lee Russell, who teaches Spanish, try their hardest to make the classes enjoyable.

Getting a few extra credit points for English 11 with her creative bulletin board is Ann Hockensmith.

ELECTIVES

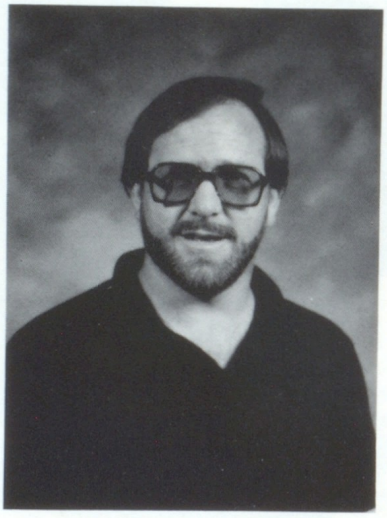

After one signs up for the classes he "has" to take, he can then sign up for the classes he wants to take for enjoyment. These are called electives. There are quite a few from which to choose: Art, Typing, Journalism, Communications, Study Hall, Industrial Arts, Home Ec. and Band. Fitting these classes into one's schedule can make the day a whole lot brighter.

THEY KEEP THINGS RUNNING SMOOTHLY

Starting early in the morning and working until late in the afternoon are W. T. Peavler, James Warren and Barry Moberly. They are the custodians responsible for Harrodsburg High School.

Being responsible for Harrodsburg Junior High and Harrodsburg Elementary School takes a lot of work and time. Henry and Herbie Peavler have their work cut out for them.

Taking a break before the lunch rush is Emmanuel Young. He is responsible for helping during lunch in the high school cafeteria and is also responsible for taking the food back and forth to Harlow Elementary School.

Cutting, stirring, and pouring are a few of the many jobs that the cafeteria ladies go through day after day. They are Ann Carey, Ethel Hamm, Deloris Hendren, Irene Akers, Jo Ann Mayes, Lorine Milton, and Leonna Price.

ACADEMICS: LOVING LEARNING

A new addition to the clubs and activities of Harrodsburg High School was the Academic Boosters Club. The Academic Boosters Club was formed by interested parents and teachers who wished to further the academic goals of the students at Harrodsburg High School. During the course of the school year, the Academic Boosters Club provided many activities to support and encourage academic achievement. One such activity was a pizza party at the end of each nine week grading period for students who made the "A" or "B" honor roll. Besides eating pizza and having a good time with friends, the students also divided into teams and played Trivial Pursuit. (above) Having a great time at a pizza party are Chad Mayes, Stacy Osbourn, Traci Nichols, Gentry Barnett, Jon Sanders, and Lloyd Browning.

Academic Team

Participating in the KET Scholastic Challenge on October 4, 1984 were Michael Browning, Jamie Slagle, and Michael Horn. Also at the competition, but not participating, were sponsor Don Pelly, team members Mark Brock, Keith Brown, Hadden Dean, John Lyons, and Billy Weaver, and sponsor Jane Woellner. Out of 40 students who auditioned for the Academic Team, these eight students were chosen to represent Harrodsburg High School in the local meets and competitions.

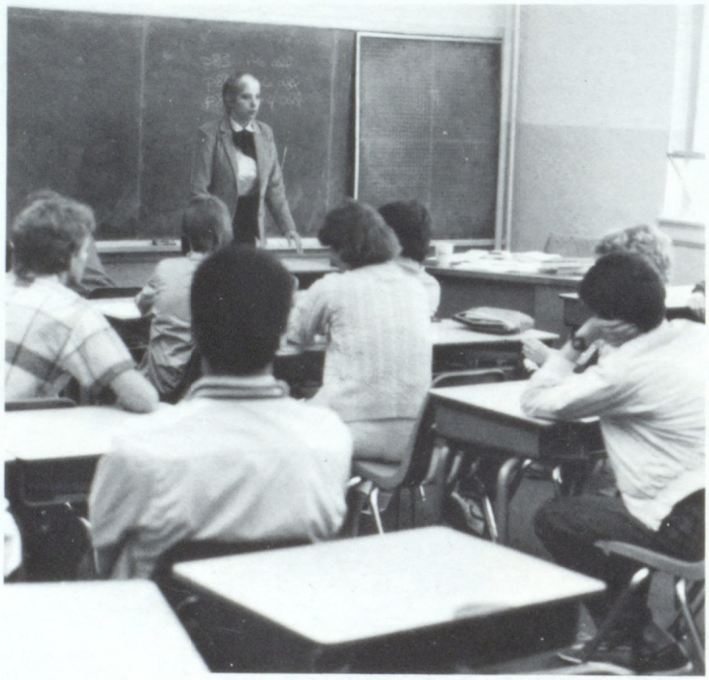

Taking part in the Academic Bowl sponsored by the Optimist Club were Mark Brock, Jamie Slagle, and John Lyons. During the year, the team also competed in the Academic Decathlon, Channel 18 "In the Know," WAVE-TV High-Q, and the Laurel County Invitational Tournament.

Career Fair

Displaying this excellent woodworking talents and woodworking knowledge is Mr. Calvin Shewmaker. He is Mr. McCloud's guest speaker for the Career Fair.

Just what is a Career Fair? A Career Fair is two hours out of the day when people from different occupations come to Harrodsburg High School and speak to students about their jobs. This year's Career Fair was held on March 28th during 5th and 6th hours. Some of the speakers for the 1985 Career Fair were Tim Murphy, Harold Burke, Debbie Helton, and Suzanne Craddock.

Miss Hooper's guest speaker was Joan Brashear. She discussed all aspects of nursing and what kind of skills and education are necessary to enter the nursing profession.

Explaining very thoroughly about the field of engineering is Mr. Yerian's guest speaker, Mr. Duane Hall. In his discussion, he covered the skills, education, and training necessary to become an engineer.

Good Luck Nancy

Students and faculty at Harrodsburg High School wish Nancy Griffin good luck as she graduates from HHS. As last year, Nancy took three classes daily. Her classes this year were Art, World History, and Spanish I. Besides managing a home, family, and a job, Nancy distinguished herself in all three of her classes. At the Honors Day program, she was awarded the Spanish I award, a Special Art I award, and a World History award. Nancy's sunny smile and optimistic attitude will be missed next year. We hope she has gained as much by her experience as the students and faculty of HHS have gained from having her with us for two years.

VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

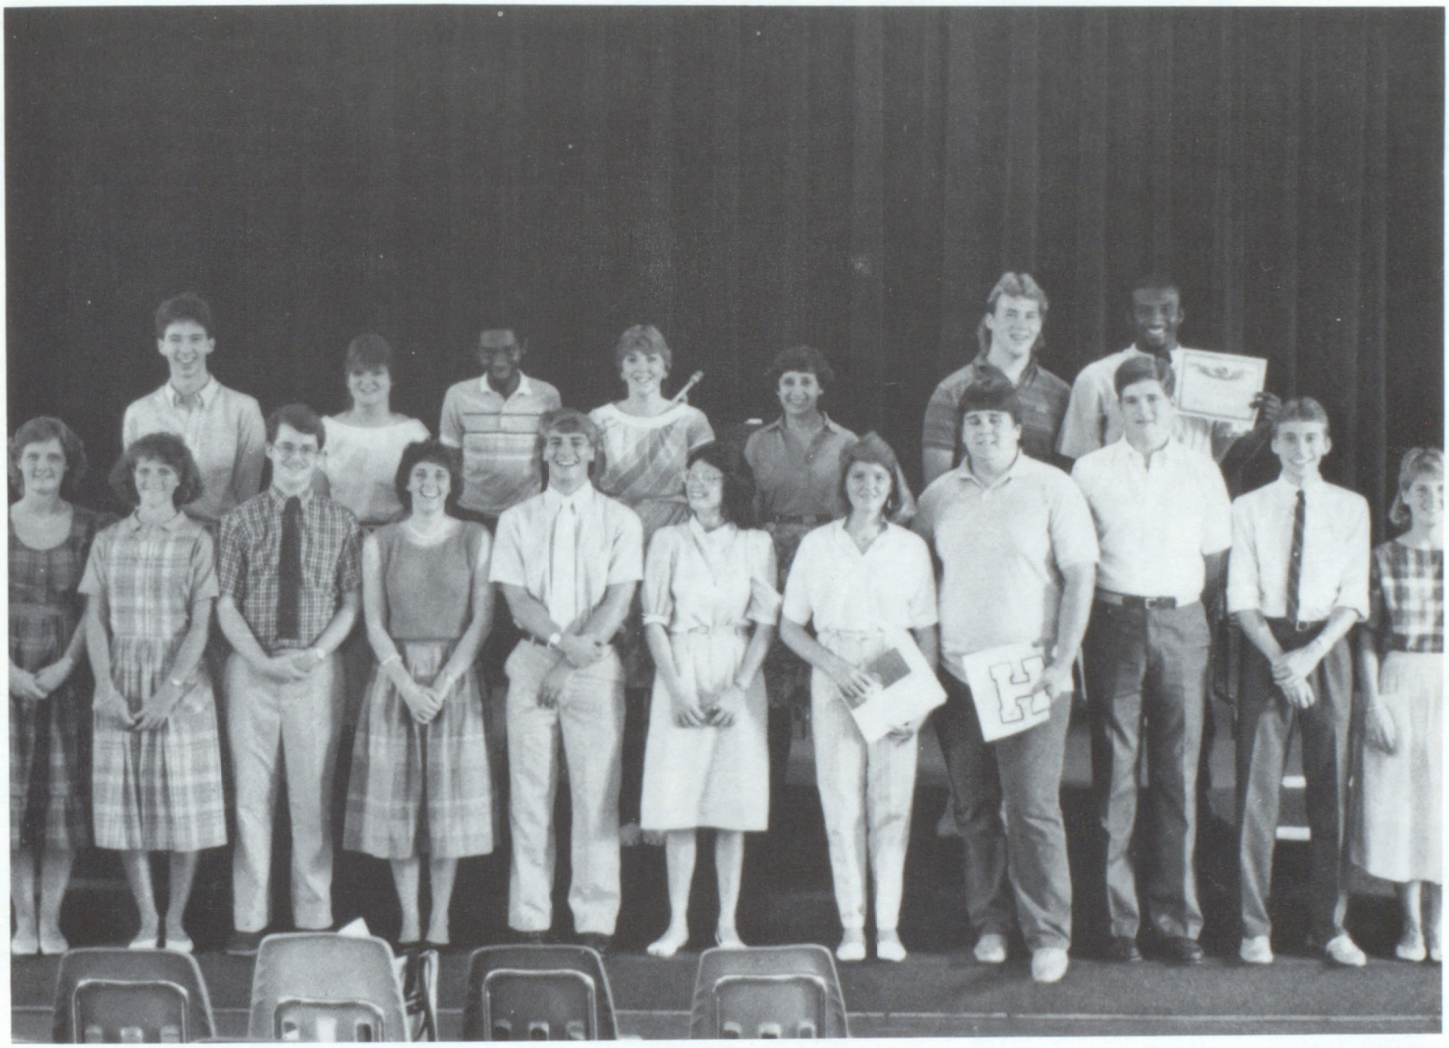

The 1985 Harrodsburg High School Valedictorian was Miss Traci Nichols. She maintained a 4.0 grade point average for the four years of high school. Traci was a member of the Harrodsburg High Marching Band, the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, and the Beta Club. Miss Elizabeth Moore was named Salutatorian of Harrodsburg High School. LIVING A LIFE FULL OF MUSIC

Much dedication and hard work is required for the members of the Harrodsburg Band. The Pioneer Marching Band began their practices in the beginning of July and they lasted until the beginning of November. The fall competitions began in August with the Anderson County competition. The seniors admitted that the highlight of their year was the last competition of the season. That successful day was at Boyle County when the band placed first. Sonya Gardner received Best Field Commander and the auxiliary placed first. Mr. Freeman proudly accepted first place at Taylor County, the school where he started his directing career. The concert season was cut short due to the fact that the band attended the Derby Festival in May.

Coed-Y

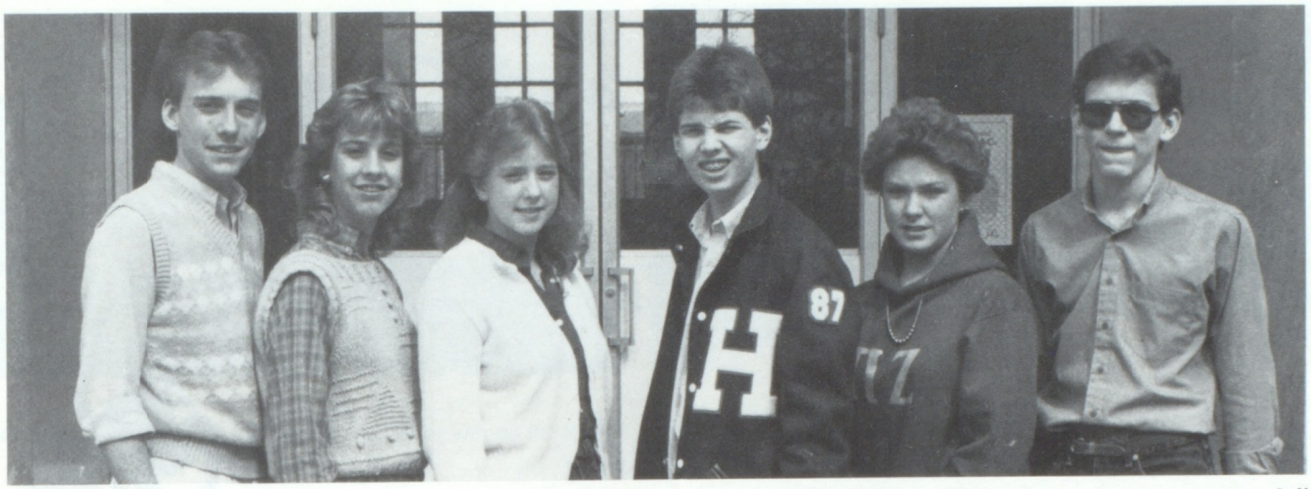

Co-ed Y is involved in many projects each year from going to KUNA and KYA conventions to giving money to important causes. A new activity this year was the haunted house that the club did for the Halloween carnival. The Jaycees let the Co-ed Y members borrow their costumes for the event. Play Cast and Crew

Under the sponsorship of Miss Patricia Burke and Ms. Betty Dean, Harrodsburg High School students produced the play The Butler Did It in November. The play was a spoof on mystery plays and stories. It is set on an isolated island with a collection of interesting guests. The play was performed for both high school and junior high students and two nights for the public. The play was greeted with rave reviews by all the critics.

Office Aides

Who are those people that prevented the Secretary, Mrs. Patsy Clevenger, from going insane? The office aides! To be a true "Life Saver", one must be willing to do just about anything and everything. They answered the phone, ran errands, passed out announcements, and checked the attendance for each class. The tasks may seem simple to the common everyday student, but that is merely a myth. The aides usually have a list of chores for them to tackle each day.

The teacher's aides are also a group of hard-working, versatile students. Most are usually found typing or grading papers for the teachers. They often ran errands off school grounds. Most trips, venturing out of school, ended up at McDonalds. Terry Drakeford and "Weef" were often found enjoying a few meals a week at good ole Macs.

After running an errand, Nelson Thompson takes a rest on the stairway.

The Photography Club taught its members how to take good photographs along with many other helpful hints. They developed their own film, printed the pictures, and learned how to enlarge or reduce the size of the picture. The club held their annual photography contest in the spring, organized by Bruce Browning. "We plan to do more next year as a club," was Mr. Pelly's reply when asked if he was satisfied with the club activities.

One member of the Photography Club, Shawn Gray, serves as chief photographer for the yearbook. While taking a break from "clicking" the shutter, Shawn poses for the camera.

Senior Missey Freeman

Missey Freeman is the 18 year-old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Bill Freeman.

For the past 6 years there has been a member of the Freeman family on the Girls Basketball team. In 1980-1982 Kim Freeman, Missey's oldest sister, played for the Lady Pioneers. Then, in 1982-1984, Cyndy Freeman was a member of the team. But, 1985 brings an end to the Freeman basketball players.

This year will be a sad one, not only to the Freeman family, but the basketball team as well, because Missey is the only senior on the team this year.

Missey has made many friends on and off of the basketball court and she will be missed in the years to come.

The 1984-1985 squad consisted of: Sherry Barr, Tracy Bugg, Tracey Winchester, Julie Wittwer, Jamie Johnson, Heather Lawrence, Missy Mobley, and Adrianne Sepko.

1985 Track Season

The boys' track team showed a lot of promise this year with two members going all the way to the state track championship which was held on Friday, May 24, 1985 in Lexington. These two track stars were senior Jim Pittman and freshman Harold Wilhite. (right) Showing their trophies are Jim and Harold. The girls' track team had only a few experienced track members, but they tried very hard and had a good season. They deserve a pat on the back for all of their effort. The experience gained this year will be a big boost to the team next year.

One More Night

The Harrodsburg High School Junior-Senior Prom was held on April 26, 1985. The theme for this year was "One More Night". The dance started at 8:00 p.m. and lasted until midnight. Close to 200 people attended the prom and danced the night away to the WLAP FM sound system. The music was fabulous with a mix of rock, soul, and country.

The walls of the Lions Park Community Center were decorated with stars and streamers. The colors were three different shades of blue.

Crowned Prom King and Queen were Nelson Thompson and Jean Campbell. After being crowned prom royalty, they shared a dance together before everyone else joined them on the dance floor.

The garter ceremony was quite unique. The girls' dates removed the garters and wore them around their arms for the rest of the evening.

The Prom of 1985 will be a cherished memory for all those in attendance and a night not soon forgotten by the 1984-1985 Senior Class.

After being announced as Prom King and Queen, Nelson Thompson and Jean Campbell are all smiles.

Traci Morgan, Monty Phillips, Doug Sims, and Joy Powell sit this dance out. They all seem to be a little fatigued from dancing all night long.

Sonya Ransdell and her date, Tim Shannon, participate in the garter ceremony.

Giving a big prom smile for the camera are Jeff Noel and his date, Tracy Gillin.

Discussing what they are going to do after the prom are James Norton and his date.

Angie Schuster blushes after Chad Mayes tells how pretty she looks for the prom.

Bobby DeFoor and Traci Nichols seem to be in "Another World" when they are together.

"Getting down" with the music are Becky Mann and her date, Chuck Cash. Missey Freeman dances on, too.

Wearing matching tuxes, Ann Hockensmith and Jeff Carey look great together.

Showing their dancing technique are Denise Brown and Brian Cheatham.

Graduation

Harrodsburg High School Commencement was held Thursday evening, June 6, 1985 at 7:30 p. m. at the Harrodsburg Baptist Church. The Commencement Address was given by the Honorable Steve Beshear, the Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky. Special music was provided by a choral ensemble of high school students under the direction of Mr. Jerry Freeman with soloist Pam Mink.

Mrs. Clark, Mr. Pelly, and Mr. Warren discuss the final preparations for commencement.

Terry Drakeford and Bobby Harris relax before commencement ceremonies.

Waiting to be lined-up are John Claunch, Bobby Claunch, and Bruce Browning.

Yearbook Staff

For the first time in several years, the yearbook was an afterschool, extracurricular activity open to juniors and seniors. All the members of the 1984-1985 Harrodian staff were first time journalists and had a lot to learn about compiling a yearbook. It was fun learning about layouts, copy sheets, headlines, and type styles. Rushing to meet deadlines, cropping pictures, and writing copy were just a few of the many jobs in which everyone participated. Everyone worked on many sections and developed a broad range of journalistic skills.
