

Pliff

C.B. Vanarsdall,

-v- Statement and affidavit.

M. D. Trimble and Mattie Trimble

Def

Plaintiff says that M. D. Trimble is indebted to him in the sum of $18.00, for medical services rendered him, which amount is reasonable for the services rendered and which amount he has promised to pay; that he has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy this indebtedness and costs and the collection thereof will be greatly endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment and return of no property found; that his indebtedness arises upon the implied contract of the said Trimble to pay for said services; that his said claim for $18 and costs is just and unpaid and he believes he should recover that amount.

He says that the defendant M. D. Trimble has fraudulently, and illegally, and with the purpose and intent to cheat hinder and delay his creditors, including this plaintiff; that he has fraudulently transferred and delivered to the defendant Mattie Trimble, money to the amount of $100 which was the property of the said M. D. Trimble, and which transfer was made after the incurring of this indebtedness sued on; and he avers and charges that said money and property is in legal effect the property of the said M. D. Trimble, although it is on deposit in the First National Bank of Harrodsburg, Ky in the name of Mattie Trimble.

Wherefore he prays judgment for said indebtedness of $18 and costs and for an order of attachment against both the defendants and a garnishment against the First National Bank.

C.E. Rankin, Atty.

The affiant, C. B. Vanarsdall, says the statements of the foregoing are true

Subscribed and sworn to before me by C.B. Vanarsdall Sept 29, 1914.