

Police Court, Harrodsburg, Ky.,

Commonwealth of Kentucky,

plaintiff,

vs

James Blake,

defendant

Minutes examining trial

The defendant, James Blake, being on trial charged with the offense of uttering a forged instrument by giving to the Kreeger Grocery Co. a check drawn on the First Mercer National Bank, Harrodsburg, Ky., for $4.50 bearing a signature which purported to be that of Ed. Philips.

but which was a forgery, the court having heard the evidence and believing that there is reasonable grounds for believing the defendant guilty as charged orders him held for trial in the Mercer Circuit Court. The defendant is recognized in the sum of $100.00 to answer and the following witnesses are recognized to appear on the 2nd day of May, 1932 to testify for the Commonwealth:-- Ed Philips, Tom Linville, Robert Scott, Morris Davenport.

Witness my hand this 1st day of April, 1932.
