Willie Henninger,

Plaintiff

VS

Petition

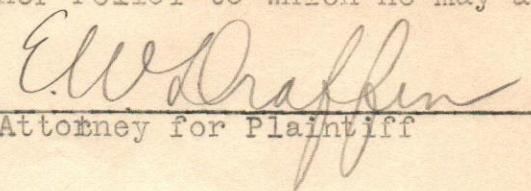

Robert Richardson,

Defendant

Plaintiff, Willie Henninger, states that the Defendant, Robert Richardson, is indebted to him in the sum of $6.50 on account; that said amount is just due and unpaid and the demand has been made upon defendant he has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay said amount or any part of the same, Wherfore ETc.

Plaintiff says that this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay money; that said amount is just, due and unpaid ; that plaintiff believes he ought to recover the amount of the debt, to with, $6.50 ; that defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said indebtedness together with the costs of this action and that the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherfore, plaintiff prays judgment against defendant for the sum of $6.50 ; for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of defendant's property or enough thereof to pay said debt and costs, and for all other relief to which he may appear to be entitled.
