

The George Bohm Co.

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Plaintiff

vs Petition.

A.L. Stratton.

Defendant

The plaintiff, the George Bohm Company, states that on the 20th day of October, 1913 the defendant A.L. Stratton, executed and delivered to its his certain promissory note by the terms of which on the first day of February, 1914 after date, he promised to pay to this plaintiff the sum of $90.00, with six per cent interest from maturity until paid. Said note being negotiable and payable at the Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg and being for value received.

It states that said note is long since past due and no part of same has been paid. Said note is filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "A" for identity.

Wherefore it prays for a judgment against the Defendant in the sum of $90.00 with six per cent interest from Feb'y 1st, 1914 until paid and its costs herein expended. It prays for all proper relief.
