

Cecil R. VanDiver
—
HARRODSBURG
Services for Cecil R. VanDiver, 80, of Burgin-Danville Road, will be 1 p.m. Saturday at Alexander & Royalty Funeral Home by Odis Clark and Lee Cox. Burial with military rites will be in Spring Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Tim Yates, Clint Yates, Roger Brown, Lee Qualls, Bill Johnson and June Christy. Visitation is 5-9 p.m. today and after 7 a.m. Saturday until time for the service. He died Wednesday at Veterans Administration Medical Center in Lexington. Born Aug. 5, 1919, in Harrodsburg, he was the son of the late Oscar and Susie Cumingo VanDiver. He was retired from the maintenance department at Kentucky State Hospital and was a member of Indian Hills Christian Church in Danville. An Army veteran of World War II, he served in the 192 Tank-Bataan, was a prisoner of war, life member of Disabled American Veterans, and member of Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a Kentucky Colonel and a member of Masonic Lodge 777 F&AM. Survivors include his wife, Ruby Hawkins VanDiver; two sons, Cecil Howard VanDiver of Carrollton and Robert Eugene VanDiver of Burgin; a daughter, Betty Jean VanDiver of Burgin; a sister, Mary Della Yates of Indianapolis, Ind.; a grandson; and a great-grandson.

VanDiver_Obituary

Clipped By:

jopolony

Thu, Jun 6, 2019