

carpentering or building, to the damage of ~~pliffs~~ debts in the sum of <sup>$302.50</sup> ~~$220.00~~.

They say that, without waiving the foregoing allegations that said injury and damage and the inferior workmanship and materials, is partially and more specifically made up thus;

Barn #1, the woods barn

No supports or braces in top or center of barn	$5.00
No latches on two doors	2.00
1 rafter broken into parts	1.00
No supports or battens for ventilators	1.00
Windows not properly cut or fitted,	2.50
Boxing insufficiently nailed on	5.00
Sheathing used instead of boxing	10.00
Barn not properly or sufficiently braced	25.00
Hinges on doors and windows not sufficiently nailed	1.00
Cement wasted and not properly mixed loss of	5.00
Roofing not properly put on, leaving leaks, poorly nailed on so as to practically ruin roof	100.00
Injury to barn by being thrown together by inexperienced help making a botch and ugly job and making a barn of inferior life and service, in addition to the above	50.00
Total	$172.50

Barn #2, Meadow barn.

Put boxing on incorrectly leaving large opening around bottom of barn so wind and weather comes in	$25.00
Cross ties not cut in barn	1.00
No supports on joists for tier rails to rest on	5.00
No button on door	.50
No catches on any doors sufficient for purpose	1.00
Planks nailed on outside to line up boxing not taken off	5.00
Used wind shaken and inferior timber instead of first class boxing as agreed on in boxing barn	10.00
Amount of bill of work furnished pliffs to assist in this barn under agreement of pliffs to pay for same	7.50