

Mercer Quarterly Court.

MERCER

Ransdell & Son,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Statement & Aff, $8,75.

John McDaniel,

Defendant.

Ransdell & son state that they are a partnership doing a general grocery business in Harrodsburg, Ky, they state that the defendant John McDaniel is indebted to them in the sum of $8,75, for goods, wares and merchandise furnished to him at his special instance and request and for which he promised and agreed to pay; they say that said account is just, due and unpaid and no part of same has been paid.

They say that the defendant has no property in this State or not enough thereof subject to execution to satisfy the claim of plaintiff or the demands of defendants creditors and that the collection of their claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for the sum of $8,75, with interest from the 14th, day of April, 1925, till paid, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, that Ed. Phillips be summoned as Garnishee herein, for their costs and whatever relief they may appear entitled to.
