

The affiant, Ben Smithey states that W. H. Armstrong is indebted to him, Claude Bunton and R. S. Bunton in the sum of $10.00 for the season to Big Phil to abig bald faced bay mare; that said mare had a colt sorrel with bald face, which colt is now less than one year old; that no part of said season has been paid; that they have a lien on said colt for said season, said horse being duly licensed according to law.
