

The affiant, Raymond Divine, states that he has reasonable grounds to believe and that he does believe that there is now in the residence of Armpie Patterson moonshin~~e~~ liquor and that the grounds of his belief is based on the following facts; To-wit: That on this date, towit: March 22nd 1931 at the hour of about eight o'clock P. M. this affiant was at the house of ~~said~~ or residence of the said Patterson and that Patterson has there in his residence ~~xxxxxx~~ a quantity of moonshine liquor; he says that the said residence of said Patterson is located in Mercer County Kentucky in or near the village known as Dixville in said County and State aforesaid and is described as follows:

East

A frame house on the ~~South~~ side of the Dixville and Harrodsburg pike; bounded on the South by the Dixville and Navada Dirt Road; on the West by the Dixville and Harrodsburg pike; on the North by the land of Charles Patterson and on the East by the land of said Charles Patterson.

Raymond Divine

Subscribed and sworn to before me by the affiant this the 22nd day of March 1931.

John Wautselaer