

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

FANNY GREEN,

PLAINTIFF.

*****VS***** PETITION.

C. M. NEWHOUSE,

DEFENDANT.

Plaintiff, Fanny Green states that defendant, C. M. Newhouse is indebted to her in the sum of $14.28, for board and lodging, which she furnished to defendant at his special instance and request; said account is just, due and unpaid, and though demand has been made still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part of same.

Plaintiff states that this is an action upon a contract, being a contract to pay money for board and lodging, which was furnished to defendant by this plaintiff at his instance and request; that said account is just and this plaintiff believes that she should recover thereon the sum of $14.28, the amount of said account; that defendant has no property in this state subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay plaintiff's debt, and that collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found. Plaintiff states that defendant is no longer residing in the
