

Morcor Quarterly Court.

E. H. Davless

Plaintiff

-v- Statement

Ben Hurst

Defendant.

The Plaintiff states that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $ 6.00 for a balance due to him on installment notes and contracts for the payment of furniture filed herewith as a part hereof; that said sum is past due and unpaid; that by the terms of said installment contracts he has a valid and subsisting lien on the following personalty to secure the payment of said debt thus

1 dresser 6 chairs

and by the terms of same is entitled to recover the possession of said personalty to sell the same privately to satisfy said indebtedness. He says there is no other lien on said personalty known to him. Wherefore he prays judgment for said sum and for the possession of said personalty and costs and all proper relief.
