WHERE'S BIRTHPLACE
OF BABY BORN IN AIR?

Legal aid will be necessary to determine the official place of birth before Sweden's first air baby can be registered. The infant, a girl, was born in an ambulance airplane while the mother was being conveyed to a hospital 120 miles from her home.

JUNIOR CIVIL SERVICE
EXAMINER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced that applications will be received until June 10, 1936, for the position of Junior Civil Service Examiner. The entrance salary is $1,620 a year, less a retirement deduction of 3 1-2 per cent.

Applicants must have been graduated from a 4-year course at a college or university of recognized standing with the completion of at least 118 semester hours, except that applications will be accepted from senior students under certain specified conditions.

The examination will consist of a mental test and of a general test. Full information may be obtained from W. R. Penney, Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, at the postoffice or customhouse in this city.

PIONEER PARK
NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

Commencement time is in the air. Of young folks there are plenty. And life begins now anywhere. From fifteen up to twenty.

A school from Eminence visited the Park on Friday.

Mr. George RoBards, of Pikeville, formerly a Harrodsburg boy, visited the Park with some friends on last Saturday.

Decoration Day brought a large crowd of visitors to the Park, in fact the esplanade was 'decorated' with numerous cars all through the hours the Park was open.

Miss Marie Clark, President of School Board, New Albany, Ind., was a visitor to the Park on Wednesday.

*Mr. Lorenzo K. Wood, State director of the National Emergency Council, and Mr. Richard Oulhan, of Washington, D. C. were recent visitors at the Park.

Lieut. Robert Morris, formerly of this place, paid a brief visit to the Fort on Wednesday. His wife and child are visiting her mother at Muncie, Ind.

*Among visitors to the Park were Mrs. Harry Walker, of California, who is related to the late W. W. Goddard, of Wildwood. Mr. John Walker of this state is a noted fox-hunter and has promised a pelt to the Fort.

Among visitors to the Park recently were Mrs. F. J. Holmes, of London, Eng. She pronounced the spot most unusual and interesting, which was high praise from one who has visited almost every civilized country in the world, and came to America to see the 'Darby.' She said the English prototype would be run on the 27th of June and returned to be present at that.

Two schools visited the Park on Tuesday—The Miller school from Richmond, Ky. and one from South Solon, Ohio.

The Library Society from Bloomfield, Ky., were visitors of the Park this week.

On Monday, June 1, a school from Fayette county visited the Park, and on Tuesday a group of young ladies chaperoned by two Sisters were from St. Catherine, New Haven.

Of recent visitors to the Park were former State Senator W. W. Boles and wife of Taylorsville, Ky., and his brother-in-law, B. F. Thompson, and wife, of Alexandria, La. Mr. Thompson is a banker and does business with the bank of which Mr. Claud Reeves is vice president, whom he knows, and also Miss Helen Norfleet, who has a position there. Mr. Reeves married a Harrodsburg girl, Miss Marion Newton, niece of the late Mrs. J. E. Cogar.

A class from the Prentice School in Louisville, visited the Park on Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Bedinger, their teacher. Among the pupils was a little Chinese girl and a Jewish maiden whose father is a rabbi.

On Saturday and Sunday we had the largest attendance of visitors we have had this season, over five hundred on Sunday and almost that number on Sunday.

A very attractive visitor to the Park was a young lady from South America. It was her first visit to Ky. and in fact North America.

Three Who Stole Hams
And Chickens Held

The case of Leon Steel, negro, accused of housebreaking was held over to the October grand jury by Police Judge Patterson Monday night. Steel is said to have stolen two hams and some chickens from his brother, Dutch Steel, who swore out the warrant for his arrest.

Accused in the same case of chicken stealing were Harold Bryant and James Parks, both negroes. Their cases were also held over to the grand jury.

Val Smith was held on a charge of accepting stolen property with his bond placed at $500.

LUTHERANS CONDEMN
'GLORIFICATION OF VICE'

The Kentucky-Tennessee Synod of the United Lutheran Church in convention at Knoxville, Tenn., has adopted a resolution "condemning the glorification of vice, scandal and divorce, found too often in the motion pictures and the press."

The Rev. Frank O. Tafel, Louisville, presented the resolution.

There is an accidental death in the United States every six minutes.

JUDGE AND MRS. ALLIN
OPEN SHAKERTOWN INN

Judge and Mrs. Ben Casey Allin have taken Shakeretown Inn and are preparing it for re-opening on or about June 10. They will be assisted in the management by their daughter, Mrs. Willard Gabhart.

Judge and Mrs. Allin operated for many years Graham Springs Hotel and are thoroughly familiar with the hotel business. Shakeretown Inn will serve regularly all three meals and also special dinners and card parties, and will feature a tea room for sandwiches and light refreshments at any hour on short notice.

A limited number of rooms are being fitted for the convenience of the traveling public which desires to remain overnight. The room space will be increased as the patronage grows, and the new proprietors plan to make it a popular resort.

"OUR GANG" STAR
DIES AT AGE OF 17

Norman "Chubby" Chaney, the fat boy of "Our Gang" comedies, is dead. The boy returned to his home in Baltimore in 1932, after two years in Hollywood. He became ill last year and went to the Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment of a glandular ailment. He failed to rally after an operation and died May 30 at the home of his parents.

Chaney was 17. He was four feet, 5 inches tall and weighed 133 pounds.

Miss Rumrill Wins $5
Translation Prize

Miss Georgine Rumrill, of this city, has been awarded the prize of $5 offered by the Transylvania, official magazine of Transylvania College, Lexington, for the best translation of Victor Hugo's poem, "The Tomb Said To The Rose." Miss Rumrill is closing her sophomore year at the college. The prize translation is as follows: The tomb said to the rose:

"What do you with the rain that clothes You, flower of love, at early dawn—ing?"

The rose said to the tomb: "And where goes that, oh catacomb, That, ceaseless, fills your great mouth, yawning?"

The rose said, "Somber tomb, Of the morning's rain a sweet perfume I make,—a cool liquid of honey and amber."

The tomb said: "Platitive flower, Of all the souls I must devour, I send God angels without number."

TRIALS OF FREEDOM

George Adams, 103-year-old negro, of Cambridge, Mass., longs for "the good old days of slavery." A court order for the arrest of the former Virginia slave was issued when he refused to move from or pay rent for the home of Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald J. Breedy in which he lived.

TOURIST TAKES NAP
WRECKS TWO CARS

An elderly man and his wife, tourists returning to their home in the north after spending the winter in Florida, took a nap while nearing Williamstown Sunday and wrecked his own car and another one headed south.

According to the story, the man and his wife both went to sleep and ran into the approaching car. Occupants of the other machine stated that they saw the car coming toward them but could not avoid it because of steep embankments on either side of the highway. They were not injured but the man and his wife who were dozing both sustained injuries. They were taken to a Cincinnati hospital.—Williamstown News.

AMUSEMENT TAX WILL BE EFFECTIVE ON JUNE 7

Governor Chandler in a statement last week reminded amusement operators that the new state amusement tax will go into effect at midnight, June 7, and asked that applications for permits and blank bonds be sent at once to the division of excises, department of revenue.
