

Mercer Quarterly Court

J.T.Royalty,

Plaintiff

vs Motion to Make more Specific and Definite Petition

John Jewell,

Defendant

The Defendant without waiving his demurrer herein moves the Court, to require the Plaintiff, to make more specific and definite his petition herein and state the amount of damage he sustained for damage for suffering pain, the amount of damage he sustained for loss of time from labor and business, and the amount he expended for injuries and damage to his automobile and medicines.

Whereofre & C,

R.W.Keenon ,Attorney for the Defendant

Mercer Quarterly Court

J.T.Royalty,

Plaintiff

vs Demurrer

John Jewell,

Defendant

The Defendant demurs to the plaintiff's petition herein because same does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against the Defendant herein.

Wherefore & C,

R.W.Keenon,Atty for the Defendant