

in the petition, plaintiff was himself guilty of negligence which contributed to cause and bring about all of the injuries of which he complains, if any he received, and that but for his said negligence contributing thereto the injuries and none of them would have been received, by him.

Wherefore having answer, he prays to be dismissed with his costs and for all proper and general relief.

R. W. Klemm

Attorney for the Defendant