

W. R. Lapsley,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Statement & Affidavit.

Taylor Anderson,

Defendant.

The plaintiff W.R.Lapsley states that the defendant Taylor Anderson is indebted to him in the sum of $18.51, for goods, wares and merchandise which the plaintiff furnished to the defendant at his special instance and request and for which he promised and agreed to pay the plaintiff; he says that said account which is filed herewith as a part hereof is just, due and unpaid and no part of same has ever been paid and that he has demanded payment of same but that the defendant has failed and refused to pay same; he says that said claim is just and that he believes he ought to recover of the defendant the said sum of $18.51 with interest and costs; he says that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy the demand of plaintiff and of defendants creditors and that the collection of his claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

Wherefore he prays judgment against the defendant Taylor Anderson for the sum of $18.51 and interests and costs of this action and for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, that Misses Mary and Sue Dunn and Chris Watts be summoned as garnishess herein, and for whatever relief he may appear entitled to.

The affiant W.R.Lapsley says that the averments in the above statement and affidavit are true.
