-v- Answer of Garnishee

John Patrick

Deft

The garnishee, Mercer National Bank, for answer says that when the process was served on it herein that it held for the defendant to his credit the sum of $15.63 consisting of money to his credit; that except for this amount that it has no money or property due or belonging to the defendant and he owns no stock in it.

Wherefore it prays to be dismissed with its costs and for all proper relief.

Attorney for the Garnishee
