John Adkison-----Defendant.

Sworn to before me by Robert Horn on the day of October 1924

The plaintiffs, Horn & Cooksey, state that the defendant, John Adkison, on November 23, 1923, by his promissory note which he executed and delivered to the plaintiffs, agreed and promised to pay to the plaintiff on March 23, 1924, one hundred thirty five dollars, ($135.00) with interest thereon from date. No part of which has ever & interest $7.13 for Mar 1, 24, and $23.45 for Mar. 1, 1924 and $- for March
been paid; Said note is filed herewith.

They say that on March 1st. 1924 the defendant, John Adkison, by his promissory note which he executed and delivered to the plaintiff agreed and promised three months thereafter to pay to the plaintiffs $12.00 with interest thereon from maturity. No part of which has ever been paid. Said note is filed herewith.

Wherefore the plaintiffs pray judgment against the defendant for the said sum of $135.00 with interest thereon from Nov. 23, 1923 and the further sum of $12.00 with interest thereon from June 1st. 1924
He prays for his costs and all proper relief. (See Credits)
