

HOOD RUBBER PRODUCTS COMPANY,

PLAINTIFF,

VS. - - - - - PETITION.

JOE GOLDSTEIN,

DEFENDANT.

The plaintiff, Hood Rubber Products Co., states that it is a corporation duly created and organized by law with full power to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with and was such corporation at all times mentioned herein.

Plaintiff states that it sold and delivered to the defendant, Joe Goldstein, on open account, at sundry dates from March 13, 1925, to February 26, 1926, goods, wares and merchandise reasonably worth the sum of $_____, and which sum the defendant promised and agreed to pay; but plaintiff states that said sum has not been paid except $_____, leaving a balance due of $92.94, which sum is now just, long past due and wholly unpaid. An itemized statement of account is filed herewith marked "A".

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant in the sum of $92.94 with interest thereon from this date until paid, for the costs of this action and all proper relief.
