In Movies . . . Executive

LOS ANGELES—When Chloe Elrod (above), graduated from high school she started out looking for a job in the movies . . . but in the business office as stenographer instead of before the klieg. She showed such aptitude in the casting office that she has been made assistant casting director.

Billiard Balls From Ivory

The best billiard balls are made of ivory; others are made of a composition of celluloid and clay, and the synthetic ball is made of ground ivory. Casein, which is a white crumbly substance of an acid character, somewhat like cottage cheese, is employed in the manufacture of artificial ivory used for billiard balls.

Valencia, "City of Joy"

The Moors used to call Valencia in Spain, "the City of Joy." Here amid white, gold and blue tiled roofs, green gardens, orange groves, old farms half hidden in olive orchards, bridges and promenades and everywhere vestiges of the Middle Ages—this is Valencia. It first appeared in history in B. C. 139.

Cocker Spaniels

Cocker spaniels, so-named because of their ability in England of seeking woodcock, are developed into a popular little sporting dog in America. The Yankee type of Cocker spaniel is smaller than its British cousin.

Worthy and Unworthy

He is worthy of honor who willetth the good of every man; and he is much unworthy thereof who seeketh his own profit and oppresseth others.

LAWRENCEBURG LOSES TWO OLD LANDMARKS

Two landmarks are being removed from the courthouse yard, one to be replaced with a World War memorial and the other to leave a vacant spot that will be sodded over. One is the fountain that was given to the county by the Pierian Club in 1912. Workmen are removing it to the lawn at the Pierian club rooms on North Main street. The other is the old German cannon that stands on the corner of Main and Court streets. This was given to the local post of the Legion by the United States government and placed in the courtyard.

house yard in 1920. It is now being removed to the American Legion fair grounds on the Bardstown road.

OFFICIAL MOURNING FOR KING IS ENDED

London society hostesses were busily preparing for a whirl of festivities as the Royal Court mourning for the late King George, of England, officially ended Wednesday, Oct. 21.

Hot Springs National Park

Hot Springs was not made a national park until 1921. Forty-seven hot springs had been reserved there by the federal government in 1832 to prevent exploitation of waters.

Public Sale Of Farm

In order to liquidate the estate of Jacob Durr, deceased, I will on Wednesday Nov. 4, 1936

sell at public auction, on the premises, at Deep Creek church, six miles from Rose Hill on Deep Creek pike, in Mercer county, Ky.

93 ACRE FARM

Said farm consists of two tracts and will be sold in separate, tracts then as a whole, the highest bid or bids being accepted.

This farm is well improved, having on it a dwelling house and all necessary outbuildings, and has very good fencing. The same consists of rolling Chaplin river land, and is adapted to tobacco, blue grass and alfalfa. It has been owned by the decedent, Jacob Durr, for 40 years and longer. This is an opportunity of a lifetime to purchase this land. The same will be sold without reserve.

TERMS: 10% on day of sale, and 40% on the 1st day of January when possession will be given. Remainder 1 and 2 years. Privilege to sow small grain will be given for this fall.

Be present and purchase a comfortable home.

J. B. BEST, Exec. Jacob Durr

W. P. Hatchett, Auctioneer.
