JEFF DAVIS STATUE

ADORN KY. CAPITOL

The statue of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, arrived at Frankfort and is to be erected beside that of Abraham Lincoln in the capital rotunda.

Governor Chandler will accept it for the Commonwealth on December 10 from Mrs. John L. Woodbury, president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

PIONEER PARK NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

Rabbits and squirrels have, it seems, Agreed on their food terms—We birds and fishes at the Park Would like to have some worms.

Golden October weather is bringing out good crowds daily to the Park. Over three hundred visitors saw its varied attractions last Sunday and each day finds its quota of interested tourists. Several visitors have stated that the spot is, by far, the most interesting and historical one in the state.

Quite a large party of young people represented a school at St. Paul, Lewis county, Ky., and another large delegation of pupils visited the Park on Thursday from Anchorage, Ky.

Mrs. J. N. Alexander, Mr. Price T.
Byram, and Mary Belle Byram, of Harrisonville, Mo., were visitors at the Park a few days since. Mrs. Alexander was a niece of Dr. John Augustus Williams, and Mrs. Byram's mother was Mary Thornton, a Daughter's College girl.

Mr. S. N. Harrod, of Escanaba, Mich., was a very interested guest of the Park on Wednesday. He is a descendant of one of Capt. James Harrod's brothers, and in looks quite fits the description given of James Harrod, founder of Harrodsburg by Collins, in his History of Kentucky, "tall erect, and commanding in his personal appearance." Mr Harrod's home—Escanaba, is an Indian name and means Flat-rock.

Mrs. George Linney, Osceola, Mo., her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burleigh Barnette, of Oklahoma City, Okla., were recent visitors to the Park. Mrs. Linney is the daughter of Mrs. John H. Lucas, a former Harrodsburg girl, Miss Nannie Cardwell, an aunt of Mrs. J.
Hal Grimes.

PERRYVILLE

A brief service was held at the grave in Junction City cemetery on Friday for Mrs. Nora Toombs Sweeney, who died Thursday at her home in the Forkland section. Mrs.
Sweeney was 64 years of age and death followed a long illness of Bright's disease. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lillie Sheens, of Moreland; and Mrs. Mary Waites, of Gravel Switch; four sons, Messrs.
W. L. and Malcolm Sweeney, of Dumas Texas; Mr. Elmer Sweeney, of Louisville, and Mr. Albert Sweeney, of Gravel Switch.

Mr. J. L. Preston on Saturday bought from Mr. George Beemer his property on the Harrodsburg road which consists of a two-story frame house and a small tract of land.
Price private. Possession Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Beemer expect to move to Danville to reside.

The home of Mr. Dave Logue, a new 6 room residence on the Mack-ville road, on Thursday morning was destroyed by fire. The fire, which originated from a defective flue, was thought to be extinguished when later it broke out again totally destroying the home and part of the furnishings. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

On Thursday evening a large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
Barick and honored Mr. and Mrs.
Garland Barick, who were recently married, with a miscellaneous shower.

The Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday afternoon at Perryville High School auditorium with an attendance of twenty-seven. The meeting was opened by singing hymn, "Work For the Night is Coming." Invocation was given by Mrs. John Lewis. A piano solo was rendered by Mrs. J. R. C. Brookshire. A splendid address was delivered by Rev. C. S.
Trammell, an evangelist of Richmond, Va. The program was followed by a business meeting. The next meeting will be held the third Thursday in November. All parents and friends of the school are urged to attend these meetings.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis and children and Mrs. Laura Best were entertained at luncheon Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Stil-gall in the country.

Dr. D. G. Freed is spending a few days with his parents at Parkersburg West Va.

Mr. Addison Parks returned Saturday to Chicago, Ill., after a week's visit with relatives here and at Hazard, Ky.

Mr. Reid Russell and Mr. Wilbert Randolph left a few days ago for London, Ky., where they will be located in a CCC camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrell, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. Farrell's brother, Mr. John Farrell, at his home in this city.

Miss Nancy Overstreet, of Bowling Green, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Mary Overstreet in South Perryville.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robertson and daughter, Gertie Lee, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed White on the Danville road.

Mr. James Norvell, of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, spent the week end at his home on the Danville road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prewitt have returned from a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Prewitt and Mr. and Mrs. David Tuttle at Irvine, Ky.

Miss Maude Harmon, of Frankfort, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. B. Harmon on the Harrodsburg road.

NEVADA

(Mrs. G. L. Semonis, Cor.)

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson and family, of Junction City, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Goode.

Mrs. James Fields and Miss Anna Lee Davis left Thursday for Martinsville, Ind., where Mrs. Fields will receive treatment at the sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCrystal, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Schooling.

Mr. Tom Hawkins will speak to the Christian Endeavor of the Bethel Presbyterian church, Nov. 1, at 7:30.

After the regular monthly service at Bethel church Sunday afternoon the Christian Endeavor Society will render an interesting program. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stratton and daughters were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Semonis.

Those from here attending the Presbytery near Campbellsville last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moss, Mrs. Gordon Schooling, Mr. and Mrs.
Henry McCrystal, Mr. John Catlett, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Catlett, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tewmeyer and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawson, Mrs.
Austin Terhune, Mr. Jim Semonis, Mrs. D. R. Terhune, Mrs. Gore Cat-lett, and Mrs. Robert Black.

Laughing at Misfortune Jud Tunkins says a good many folks find it easy to laugh at misfortune provided it ain't one of their own.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Reson Irvine announce the birth of a daughter, Shirley Elaine, Oct. 12, at their home in this city. Mrs. Irvine was formerly Miss Lucile Peavler.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pulliam welcomed a small daughter on October 15, whom they have named Shirley Louise. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely.
